SPECIAL MEETING.
Don't forget the special meeting for boys and girls at the tabernacle at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Children under nine years old not admitted.

One of the most remarkable religious demonstrations ever witnessed in Newark was that at the Lyon tabernacle at Sixth and Main streets, last night, when 200 persons, many of them with tears streaming down their faces from their deep conviction, walked down the sawdust trail and pledged that their lives should hereafter be more nearly of a Christian nature. The event was the real opening of the Lyon campaign. For over a week the evangelist and his party have labored earnestly to bring the church members of the city to realize that their lives had not been in accordance with the will of their God. Their insufficiency has been shown in sermon and song, and the fidelity of the evangelist's petition for "better living" met its logical response in the sermon of last night. "Roll away the stones that separate you from God," was the general theme of Dr. Lyon's address, and the professing Christians of Newark, many of them members of the best families in the city, did not hesitate in taking their stand for the church. What is to be the result? Simply this—if the people who call themselves Christians acknowledge that they have been delinquent, is it not to be expected that thousands who have remained out of the church because of inconsistencies in the church will heed the call to salvation that Dr. Lyon offers. Newark is entering on a new era of religious activity, and there is no doubt, in the light of the remarkable conversion last night, that the next five weeks will result in hundreds being brought to the proper view of life. The demonstration was simply astonishing and far exceeded any results secured in similar campaigns in any part of the country, by Torrey, Billy Sunday, Oliver or even Chapman and Alexander.

Who Owns This House?
Dr. Lyon was at his best last night. His sermon was direct in its application, rebuking those whose sins have made them forget God, and pleading faithfully for the regeneration of those who have not known him. Vice and avarice were scored with all the verbal venom Dr. Lyon possessed, while so-called "good church members" were held up to the shame of the congregation because of their failure to properly serve their Master. One church member in Newark—and Dr. Lyon knows his name—was made the object of Dr. Lyon's scorn because he is the owner of a house in the red light district and permits the operation of the house simply because he is "getting a good rental for it." Dr. Lyon's knowledge of the inner vices of the city's residents is not at all meagre; he has sources of information that serve him well, and in the days and nights that are to come he will bring many a local idol shattering from his pedestal.

Dr. Lyon's theme last night was the story of the rolling away of the stone at the grave of Lazarus and the resurrection of the friend of the Christ, and Dr. Lyon derived many a practical lesson from it. "A series of revival meetings," he commenced, "is very similar to a time of sickness and death in the house. Other things are laid aside. There is no time to leave the loved ones; there is no time then to go to balls and shows; no person who would claim respectability would leave the coffin of a dead husband, or wife, or parent, or child, and spend the evening at a carnival or in debauchery, for their whole thoughts would be centered in the great fact that had come into their homes and hearts. So it is that when this community is gripped by the truth that lives are deep in sin, there is no time for mere merriment and indulgence, or reckless dissipation and debauchery. Their whole time is centered in trying to bring the dead spiritually into eternal life.

Stay Out of Jail.
"Business duties cause many a man to drift from God until he goes to church only once on Sunday—becomes a 'once'—manages to stay out of jail and then thinks he's going to glory."
Dr. Lyon then devoted several minutes to the telling of a story of the awakening of a man to spiritual truths through the death of his child. "I very much fear," he added, "that there are thousands right here in Newark who are drifting from God until they are in the hands of the law."

SULZER NOMINATED BY NEW YORK DEMOCRATS AFTER DIX WITHDRAWS

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 3.—William Sulzer, representative in Congress from New York City, was nominated for governor early this morning by the Democratic state convention. It was the seventh time he had been a candidate for this nomination. Sulzer was formally declared the choice of the party on the fourth ballot, after the name of Governor Dix had been withdrawn. As the various counties began to turn their votes over to Congressman Sulzer on the fourth ballot, Judge Kellogg of Washington county asked unanimous consent to withdraw the name of Governor Dix and to move that Mr. Sulzer be unanimously nominated. The action was seconded, but Chairman Alton B. Parker said that it was necessary to complete the roll

When this formality ended the chair announced that Congressman Sulzer had been named for governor, having received all the votes of the convention except three votes. Martin H. Glynn was then nominated for lieutenant governor. The platform ratifies the Democratic national platform, pledges its support to Wilson and Marshall and condemns what it styles as the "monopolistic tariff evils" of the Republican party. Governor Dix's administration is described as "efficient, clean and economical." The platform pledges the legislature to provide for a constitutional convention to pass on the initiative, referendum and the short ballot and declares in favor of submitting the woman suffrage amendment

Congressman James M. Cox And Hon. F. D. Wood Tonight

Hon. James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, will address the people of Newark and vicinity at the High School auditorium tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

Hon. Fred D. Wood, of Chicago, will speak from the same platform. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN TESTIFIES THAT HE GAVE SMALL FORTUNE TO THE ROOSEVELT CAMPAIGN

Washington, Oct. 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan proved a willing witness today before the Clapp committee investigating campaign expenditures, and testified that he had given $150,000 to the Republican campaign of 1904 and $20,000 to the Republican campaign of 1908. In an hour's questioning Mr. Morgan denied emphatically charges by Charles Edward Russell of New York, that President Roosevelt had once telephoned for a campaign contribution. He declared he never had any communication with President Roosevelt and asserted that he knew of no conference among financial men in 1904 or 1908 to agree on supporting Republican or Democratic presidential candidates. He confirmed the testimony yesterday of George B. Sheldon that he had contributed $100,000 to the Republican national campaign fund of 1904 and

Miss Mary Morrison Maginness, Special Representative of the Advocate Writes Appreciation of Wednesday's Experience

NO DANGER AT ALL IF YOU KEEP

First Trip Taken by Newark Passenger Under of This Paper—As Easy as Sitting in Rock Chair—People Looked Infinitesimally Short Small.

For nearly ten minutes last evening, Miss Mary Morrison Maginness, 98 South Third street, accompanied Aviator Archie Freeman Wright biplane, as a special representative of the Advocate. It was a splendid one, the fact that a passenger was along not hind Freeman's control of the machine in any way. The fact that vocate, enterprising as ever, had arranged for this flight was sively commented upon by the hundreds who witnessed the ex. and in response to a popular demand, Miss Maginness has written appreciation of the flight for the Advocate, Newark's latest news.

By Mary Morrison Maginness. It's perfectly wonderful to be an aviatrix—the most delightful sensation imaginable—and I'm awfully glad to say that the happiest day in my life was spent as the special representative of the Newark Advocate. You see, I always have been interested in aviation, ever since I was a little girl in the south end of Newark. I remember once I tried to get to the top of a cherry tree in our front yard to get some especially nice looking cherries. I reached the top and got down safely—that is, about half way. Then I started to volplane and made a very undignified descent.

The upper elevations around Newark have always held a peculiar charm for me. In fact, I have spent a great deal of my visit here in climbing the hills, especially old Chestnut Hill, so I have another claim to recognition as an experienced climber. And then there was the rather amusing flight I made when here some eight years ago. That was before the time of aeroplanes that carried passengers, but I'll venture that no biplane ever made by the Wright Brothers made better speed and hit as many of the "high spots" in the atmosphere as I did on that occasion. It was all caused by my getting on a big empty-looking farm out near Chestnut Hill and trying to change it into a perfectly respectable croquet court. The man that owned the land was a farmer named Murphy and he very unkindly turned a lot of cows into the lot while I was playing there. Can you imagine the rest? Altitude flying, a few dips and hurdles, and I was outside the field, with the cows still on the other side of the fence marveling at my lack of social instinct.

But my real flight was so different that it is going to be hard to put my appreciation of it into mere words. It has to be experienced to be really known, but I will try to give a glimpse of the joys of soaring several hundred feet above one's fellow-men—or fellow-woman. It is hard to believe that so frail-looking a machine as Mr. Freeman's biplane could carry its burden of engine and passengers so easily. It was as easy as sitting in a rocking chair. I thought surely I would have to hold onto something, but Mr. Freeman cautioned me very carefully about this before we left the ground.

"Don't touch that wire up there. Keep away from that lead wire to your left. For heaven's sake, don't touch that handle, or you'll stop the motor." was only a part of his running fire of instructions that I remember. So I just sat still, with my hands in my lap, kept smiling and waited for the machine to start.

Let me caution any woman of Newark that before she tries aviation as a sport, she had better take a course in the sign language used by mutes. When the valves of the engine begin popping and the propellers start whirling and cutting their way through the air, it is absolutely impossible to hear anything. I found that I could not talk and make any one hear me—which was, of course, a great shock to my feminine nature.

I wasn't at all nervous about the prospect of danger. This was no doubt due to the excellent entertainment that was offered by Mr. Berger, manager of the exhibition. Mr. Berger kept my mind away from all sense of worry by relating some clever little stories, and whenever I felt a desire to mourn the procrastination that was evident in arranging the flight, I just recalled some of his experiences and kept smiling.

Besides, I was equipped with a ticket to heaven contributed by a friend on the grounds, carried a few aspirin tablets, and had prayed quite properly that we should not

Mr. Berger kept my mind away from all sense of worry by relating some clever little stories, and whenever I felt a desire to mourn the procrastination that was evident in arranging the flight, I just recalled some of his experiences and kept smiling.

Besides, I was equipped with a ticket to heaven contributed by a friend on the grounds, carried a few aspirin tablets, and had prayed quite properly that we should not

CIRCUIT KEYE STAKE WON BY BADEN
Baden, O., Oct. 3.—Baden, star of the Grand Circuit this year, struck back yesterday at the foe that humbled him a week ago in the Hoster-Columbus struggle and won the Buckeye stake in record time, both for himself and the event. He did 2:05 1/4 in the first and third heats, making the race the best of its grade this year.
Impetuous Palmer, almost unheralded, brought to the Columbus track a world's record when he paced an exhibition mile in 7:05 1/4, one-quarter of a second faster than the 3-year-old stallion marks of both Jim Logan and Klatwahl.
Eva Cord was a straight-heat winner in the 2:11 class trot. The 2:14 one, five heats of which were raced Tuesday, was won by Doctor Wilkes. Bessie Bee acted as crowd-retainer, she landing the 2:15 pace, but not the first two heats.
Dave Hallie, winner of the Hoster-Columbus, was second choice yesterday to Baden for the Buckeye, but he landed the sixth portion of the prize. Fourth in two heats he came, while three of the field alternated in chasing Baden home. The Wanderer finished fifth by being third twice.
Steadiness was Baden's specialty, though once or twice, in a tedious race of scoring for the first heat, he came down breaking. He was on a trot when the word was given and was able to keep clear of a pocket. He didn't tire in the last half, which was trotted in 1:01 1/4, and there was hung out for him a brand new record of 2:05 1/4.
Ruth McGregor was second in this heat, but Dorsh Medium slipped past her at the windup of the second mile, that was not trotted at the furious clip of the first one. There was plenty of dash to the final quarter that brought the heat down to 2:06 1/4.
Ruth McGregor is owned by J. G. Cooper of Cincinnati, a brother-in-law of W. J. Bowers of this city. He has a number of Newark friends who are pleased to learn that the horse is one of the main contenders in the big stake events of the grand circuit. The mare finished second in the Hostetter $10,000 stake at Columbus last week. Mr. Cooper has been offered a small fortune for his fast trotter, but thus far has refused the tempting offers.

WILEY

poisonous dyes to make them seem fresh: those mixing cheap substitutes with foods and drugs to keep up their weight and volume and deceive and threaten the purchaser.
"Full-bellied and sleek-faced, lobbyists filled the hotels of Washington and used the columns of our newspapers, and eminent professors in our colleges and universities were brought to Washington to tell the committees of congress that all these disreputable practices were harmless and required by the exigencies of trade.
"During all this time no president of the United States and no cabinet officer ever said a favoring word for the enactment of this law — except on one or two occasions in a most perfunctory way.
"Mr. Roosevelt, in one of his messages, alluded to the matter in a short paragraph without accentuation.
In the autumn of 1904, Senator Heyburn, believing that a winning chance was at hand, asked President Roosevelt to recommend the passage of the act in his message.
"The president replied that it was of so little consequence that it was not worth mentioning.
Dr. Wiley spoke of difficulties he had encountered in enforcing the law, of the appointment of Associate Chemist Dunlap and "the growth of Solicitor McCabe's power." Finally, he said, to keep out of the courts, the opponents of the law appealed to Secretary Wilson and President Roosevelt.
"Shortly thereafter," he continued, "I was asked by the secretary of agriculture to go with him to the president's office. Solicitor McCabe and Associate Chemist Dunlap were also of the party.
"There we met Mr. Curtice of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. Grosvenor, representing Williams Bros., of Detroit, and James S. Sherman, at that time a member of the house of representatives, appearing in the interest of Sherman Bros., of Oneida, N. Y. They had spent the previous evening with the president, showing him how Wiley was ruining the Republican business.
"Mr. Roosevelt turned to the secretary of agriculture and said: 'Mr. Wilson, do you think the addition of benzoate of soda in foods is injurious?'

"Then turning to me, he said: 'Dr. Wiley, do you think the use of benzoate of soda in foods is injurious?'
"I answered: 'I do not think — I know.' The same question was asked of Solicitor McCabe and Associate Dunlap. They both answered in the affirmative.
"Then turning to the Republican representatives of business and striking the table a ringing blow with his fist, the president said: 'Gentlemen, if this drug is injurious, you should not put it in foods.'
"At this juncture Mr. Sherman interposed: 'But, Mr. President, how about the saccharin? My firm saved $4000 last year by using saccharin instead of sugar.'
"I unfortunately 'buted in' at this juncture and said: 'Yes, Mr. President, and every one who eats these products is deceived, believing he is eating sugar, and moreover, the health is threatened by this drug.'
"Turning upon me in sudden anger and fierce visage, the president said: 'Anybody who says saccharin is injurious is an idiot. Dr. Rixey gives it to me every day.' Having thus had my mental classification officially defined, I withdrew.
"Two days thereafter the Remsen board was organized. It was relieved with a shout of acclamation from the throat of every adulterator and misbrander of foods in this land. Instead of having to go to the courts to defend their nefarious practices, they were now the wards of the Great Father at Washington and from that time to this have continued their activities in poisoning and defrauding the people under his protecting wing.
"All prosecutions were suspended and the mercenary interests, comprising not to exceed 500 people, were authorized to poison and cheat the other 95,000,000 of our population. This is protecting the people's rights against the predatory interests with a vengeance.
"Who committed this unpardonable sin against the conscience and health of the public. The great tribune of the people, Theodore Roosevelt and his cabinet officers.
"I am naturally not greatly enthusiastic with the prospect of the continuation of this crime against humanity by the return of Theodore Roosevelt to supreme power. The impetuous way in which he wielded his power when president, his well known contempt for congress and for law and his dictatorial control of the convention which nominated him for president, do not augur well for the permanence of the republic under his further dictatorship.
"Roosevelt is just as apt to support the bad as the good. He is not guided by principle, but by impulse and he is essentially dangerous to free institutions. He who disfranchises the men that Abraham Lincoln died to set free is an apostate from the party which honored him with the presidency.
"When the legislative committee of the American Medical Association went to the White House to ask that this action be rescinded," Dr. Wiley declared, "President Roosevelt became violently angry, and, livid with rage, said: 'You jacks keep your bridges on.' Throughout the remainder of his term Mr. Roosevelt continued to be guided by those seeking to emasculate the law," added the speaker.
In most of the whisky cases, the speaker said, appeals were pending when President Taft was inaugurated. "President Taft," he added, "has prided himself on his confidence in and support of the judiciary. Yet knowing these cases were pending he stooped from his high office to do a favor to the worst lot of adulterators in Christendom and ordered the whole matter dropped from the dockets.
"It is impossible, therefore, that I should have confidence in the coming conduct of these two candidates, no matter how profusely they have promise to be good and work for the common welfare. By their fruits (not promises) shall ye know them. And these fruits have been scabby, worm-eaten and rotten at the core.

"Let the laboring men of the country and those of small means on whom the burden of debased foods and drugs principally rests, think soberly and deeply before deciding to cast their votes for one who, when in power, abandoned them to the avice of the adulterator, to the malice of McCabe and to the duplicity of Dunlap.

your city that will never waken from their sensual, mammon worship until sickness of their family occurs or friends are taken away from them. Do not wait for sorrow and suffering to make you send for Jesus. Send for him right now!
Jesus, it will be remembered, stayed away from the tomb of Lazarus for a few days. "It costs a parent more to punish a child than to give it what it wants," said Dr. Lyon. "Christ wanted to bring the greatest spiritual blessings to that family, but they were not ready to receive it. How long will Christ have to stay away from your community? Until you are ready to receive his blessings!"
The element of discouragement is shown in the attitude of Mary, the sister of the dead Lazarus. She did not believe that Christ was going to come. "There are a great many people," declared the speaker, "who are mistaking dyspepsia and liver complaint for religion. They say we could have a great revival in Cambridge, but not in Newark, because Cambridge is such a good city. We have been given up to deviltry, red lights, etc., and there is no hope for Newark! There is no city that God loves and where he is able to show as mighty power as right here in your beautiful city, friends. Don't you believe it?"
Move Off Grumbly Ave.
"If you are living on Grumbly avenue, move up on Sunshine boulevard and God will bless you. God cannot use you if you are always in the dums, and there are some people in this city who never get out."
Dr. Lyon then said that he had always been glad that it was Martha that went out to meet Jesus, for it was to her that he later said, "I am the Resurrection and the Life." Martha went back to her sister and told of the coming of Jesus, and Mary arose and went to him. "I would be willing to make a bargain with you people," continued the speaker. "If you could get all the professing Christians in this city to put Jesus Christ first in their lives, you would have such an ingathering of souls that you couldn't put up a building big enough to hold the crowds seeking salvation. Revivals begin in the church, and if you are to have a revival in Newark, it must begin in the ranks of the church people."

Dr. Lyon's humorous nature was evidenced in his tale of the Irishman who lustily kept shouting, "Hurrah for Ireland." An Englishman, hearing him, gave voice to his disgust by saying, "Hurrah for hell!" And Pat, with his usual sense of prompt report, replied:
"Sure, hurrah for hell! Every man for his own country."
"Of course there are distractions in the city this week," Dr. Lyon remarked, "but they don't worry me. I make men show where they stand. If a man loves the devil, let him show it. Let him go to some show or carnival, but if he loves God let him line up with Christian people and show his true colors. That's the great thing that we want to do tonight—make men commit themselves either for God or against him."
"Another thing," added Dr. Lyon. "When Christ wanted to know where Lazarus had been laid, they didn't tell him to take the third street and keep to the left until he came to the cemetery and that the fourth grave on the right side was that of Lazarus. They said, 'Come and see.' They didn't say, 'Go.'"
Puffing That Rotten Pipe.
"There are cases of even church members who have told their children to go to Sunday school, while that same old bum would sit there reading forty or fifty pages of the slush in the Sunday newspaper and puffing on a rotten old pipe like a dirty chimney. And then they say, when their children grew up and went out into the world of sin, 'I don't know what is the matter with my children. They should be such good children; they have such good parents.'"
"Oh, fathers," pleaded the revivalist, "if you wish your children to be strong, Godly Christians, be strong yourself. Do not say, 'Go.' Say, 'Come.'"
The evangelist described the method of burial in the early days, and pictured Jesus telling those who had followed to roll away the stone.
"Often there are stones of hindrance and obstruction between the church and the community," he added. "They choke up the channels and keep away God's blessing. Narrow sectarianism does this. There are so many churches these days that claim to be the only church. Of all the absurd claims on God's earth this takes the field."
"I want you to be loyal to your church. But there is no church that has a patent on piety or a corner on corruption. Many people are mistaking Churchianity for Christianity. Some people and some pastors are loyal to their church and are enthusiastic just as a captain of a baseball team is enthusiastic—and for no higher and no different motive. That's the benefit of a union campaign; it shows whether we are working for salvation of souls or for that my-wife-and-my-family sort of religion."
The speaker scored the spirit of rivalry in churches in getting up bazaars and oyster suppers merely to keep pace with the church across the way.
Love Own Wife Only.
"That isn't the spirit of God. Do not think that you have all the religion there is. When a man says, 'I love every other man's wife in this community just as much as I do my own,' I don't want him to live in my community. If you think that all religion is centered in the four walls of your denomination, there is something wrong with you. There is somebody living across the hill, even if you are so short sighted you can't see the smoke coming out of the chimney."

Persons who stop going to one church simply because the pastor hits at their pet vice, came in for the general condemnation of Dr. Lyon. "I have more respect for a sheep-stealing dog, though," added Dr. Lyon, "than I have for the pastor who tries to steal singers from another choir or who wants to take away the members of some other church."
Rivalry in the individual churches was next considered by the speaker. "As long as Mrs. So-and-so is the head of the church society, everything is enthusiastic, but when someone else is put into office, that individual loses all her enthusiasm and doesn't care whether school keeps or not. Friends, that soul is not working for God who is simply working for himself, that he might occupy the high places.
Choir the War Department.
"This happens among the best people in the churches—I mean the musicians. One pastor has called the choir his war department. Almost half of the dissensions in churches have started in the church choir. If Mrs. Jones has gone off and taken a few music lessons in Boston, Chicago, New York, Columbus, Graniteville or Buckeye Lake, she can sing solo in incomprehensible tones away up in the rafters, scraping off the kalsomine, and is enthusiastic. She has that erratic, operative air of the finished singer." Dr. Lyon told another of his popular tales regarding a "finished singer" of whom a listener once said that he "was glad she was finished. He was afraid she might start yelling again."
"But just try to get up a chorus and see what happens," added the speaker. "She'll come to you and say that if you're going to have Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jones singing in the chorus you can 'count her out.' Half the time of many godly pastors in this country is spent trying to settle troubles that come from their choirs. I am glad that we have singers, but they ought to have religion as well as voices if they are to help in the work of Jesus Christ. If you have that stone of rivalry in your life, I pray that you will roll it away tonight."
Always in Fighting Togs.
"There are always some people 'asin the government.' Some people think they can show their love of the old pastor by fighting the new one. Some people don't do anything in the church but kick; don't have time to do anything but criticize. They come home from church on Sunday and then, at the table, pick the sermon to pieces, logically, biologically and theologically. They criticize the pastor's wife and children; if she takes care of them, they wonder why she isn't giving more time to church affairs; if she neglects them they grumble and say, 'Why don't she take care of her kids.'"
"If there are any special seats in heaven, they're to be reserved for ministers wives; they're a sort of a buffer between both sides. The unjust gossip and brutal criticism of a community has sent many a godly pastor's wife to her grave."
"And then, the Lord deliver me from these anonymous letters," said Dr. Lyon. "They come in from people by the scores during all of our revivals. A person who would write such a letter is a coward, a low down (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1.)

YOU'RE BILIOUS! YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS ARE INACTIVE--"CASCARETS"

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning—a 10 cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget your children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.

THE WORKMEN

One works all day and earns two dollars, and when the toilsome day is spent, his cheap tin dinner pail he collars and homeward goes, serene, content. As he devours his evening potage he counts the blessings he enjoys; he has a neat, unmortgaged cottage, well filled with happy girls and boys; his wife, with disposition sunny, is singing as she prepares food; each week he saves a little money and puts it safely in the pound. In worldly blessings he's as wealthy as any plute in all the land; he thanks his gods that he is healthy, and always has a job on hand. One works an hour and earns ten dollars, and then cavorts around the town, and wrings his hands and shrieks and hollers, and tells how life is trampled down. He is, he says, the martyred victim of grafters, who too long have sinned; the Wall Street barons deftly kicked him, and Government say by and grined. His feelings have been badly dented, his dearest corns are sadly pinched, and he will never be contented until some congressmen are lynched. The men with pockets full of guilders are they who storm around and rage; the toilers, women, diggers, builders, contented work and draw their wage.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

By O. Terrence.

COL. GORGAS, WORLD'S CHAMPION SLAYER OF THE MOSQUITO.

Killing mosquitoes may not be so spectacular and glorious as slaying a mob, but it is a lot more profitable to the human race. When the Panama Canal is completed, it will be a monument not only to the engineering skill of George Washington Goethals, but to the medical ability of Col. William Crawford Gorgas, M. D. It was not graft alone that turned the French canal project into a disaster and a disgrace. The disease-breeding and death-dealing "skeeter" had much to do with it. When Uncle Sam decided to construct the big ditch connecting the Atlantic and Pacific, Panama was a fest-hole that had no equal outside of the wild interior of South America. Now the country around the canal zone has become a health resort, thanks to the efforts of Dr. Gorgas. William Crawford Gorgas was born fifty-eight years ago today, October 3, 1854, in Mobile, Ala. His father was Gen. Josiah Gorgas, of the Confederate army. After graduating from the University of the South and from Bellevue Medical College in New York, and serving two years as interne in Bellevue Hospital, the young physician entered the United States army as a surgeon. That was in 1880. His rise was rapid, and in 1903 Congress passed a special act appointing Dr. Gorgas a colonel and assistant surgeon general of the army, and gave him a special mission to carry on the warfare against yellow fever in Havana. His success in sanitation in the Cuban capital made him the logical choice as chief sanitary officer of the Isthmian Canal Zone. At Panama Col. Gorgas faced a vast army of insect enemies, busily engaged in the distribution of the germs of yellow fever and the fatal tropical malaria. Col. Gorgas and his sanitary squad seemed to be pitted against odds, but so well did they fight the winged messengers of death that within a few months the bubonic plague and yellow fever were stamped out, and malaria had become infrequent and rarely fatal. The duties of Col. Gorgas and his men included the screening of houses inhabited by the canal workers, the fumigation of all homes in the zone, the distribution of larvicide to kill the infant mosquitoes, and, most important of all, the draining of the swamps from which the insects had long fared forth on their mission of death. The cat, which carries the germs of bubonic plague, also came in for much attention. Putting into effect a comprehensive sanitary scheme required tact and diplomacy as well as "know how." Other able surgeons had tackled the job, but failed miserably because of their affectation of superiority toward the natives. Their "strong arm" tactics, made necessary by a lack of com-

A SENSIBLE WAY TO CURE A COLD CLEAR HEAD AND STOP CATARRH

No Stomach Dosing, No Quinine, or Acetanilid and No Waiting For Results.

Here is a simple, harmless, effective treatment for Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Hay Fever and all diseases and stoppages of the air passages that will appeal to every one. Nearly every one suffers more or less with Colds, and Catarrh in some form and all need the Nostriola Treatment, so that they are able to throw off colds. The nostrils and air passages are the breeding places for Catarrh germs. When the membranes are sore, inflamed, and sensitive, you catch cold easily and colds quickly lead to Catarrh, etc. The Quickest way to cure Colds and prevent Catarrh is to apply the Nostriola Treatment direct to the seat of the trouble and destroy the Catarrh germ before it has time to do harm. The Nostriola Treatment prevents as well as cures Colds, Croup and Catarrh. It quickly reaches and heals the sore inflamed mucous membranes, destroys the Catarrh germ, and not only breaks a cold in a few hours, but this simple treatment strengthens the linings of the air passages, so that they are able to throw off colds. Nostriola is sold in handy sanitary tubes, 25c for sixty days treatment. Get a tube of your druggist and you'll wish you had tried Nostriola sooner.

preparation of the workings of the Latin-American mind, were futile. The increased natives promptly disregarded instructions as soon as the lack of the medical officers was turned. Col. Gorgas circulated among the Panamanians with an easy geniality, and "jollied" and persuaded them into submitting to his course of treatment. Realizing that he was dealing with a proud and sensitive people, he used argument, persuasion and cajolery to attain his ends. He was as courteous to the women as if all were queens, praised and played with the children, and treated the men as equals. For all the world as if he were a candidate for office. The people of Panama just couldn't resist such a man. Molasses, it is well known, will catch more flies than vinegar—and also more mosquitoes, which was the particular insect Col. Gorgas was bent on bagging.

THREE INJURED IN A COLLISION

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Three persons were probably fatally injured and 15 others more or less seriously hurt in a collision of a West Shore passenger train and a freight train near here early today. Charles Smith, engineer, and Albert Haskin, fireman on the passenger train were so badly scalded that it is thought they will die. Ten passenger coaches were derailed and 18 freight cars derailed. Miss Helen Gould and a party of ladies in her private car went through the wreck. They were asleep at the time and were badly shaken up.

The Gyroscope. When the movement of the gyroscope attains a high degree of speed it is very difficult to displace the plane of the top, which balances itself in the most unlikely positions. An attachment of this kind, but of very large dimensions, if placed on a wagon or a boat, gives the vehicle extraordinary stability. Trains resting on a single line of wheels set under the middle of the car have attained high speed during recent experiments in Germany and have proved perfectly stable.—Harper's Weekly.

When Clay Pipes Were Popular. Justin McCarthy went to London in 1852 and found clay pipes in fashion. "It was thought quite the right thing for a man of fashion to appear in the broad day with a clay pipe in his mouth," he wrote. "Many a young man stuck a clay pipe in his mouth and pretended to be a real gentleman."

Mr. Will Albright of Cambridge, O., and Mr. Al Albright of Byesville, are spending the day in Newark as guests of their brother, Mr. John Albright in Ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Osborn and the latter's father, Mr. Charles Martin of Chicago, stopped over in the City City Tuesday from the Windy City to New York and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Skinner.

Mrs. James Montgomery Wilson of Zanesville is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Clarkson. Mrs. Wilson says that Zanesville, having no attraction but the "Y" bridge, is very dead just now, and she came up to visit a "real" county fair.

CARD OF THANKS. Miss Lola Ketter, desires to tender her sincere thanks to the Jewett Car Co. employees, Bent Woodwork employees, Loyal Order of Moose and to the many friends who so kindly aided her to win the diamond ring contest at the Moose Festival. 3dix

CAR DASHED DOWN INCLINE; ONE KILLED

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 3.—With a report like a pistol shot, the brakes on a city-bound street car gave way this morning as it was passing down the Greenville avenue hill. Men and women, started by the sound, rushed for the doors and huddled together while the car sped along the grade for eight squares. Then they were tossed in a bruised and bleeding heap as it left the rails and collided with a telephone pole. John Sanders, draughtsman, was killed and 55 other passengers were injured.

DANCING GOWN OF PINK CHARMEUSE

A dancing gown of pink charmeuse with a tunic of pink tulle to match will be much worn this fall and winter. The high cut on the shoulder and low front in this season's attractive style for low neck.

DON'T GIVE UP.

Discouraged Citizens Will Find Comfort in the Experience of a Newark Man.

Experience is the modern instructor. Profit by the experience of others. It may save your life. The experience of friends and neighbors. The testimony of Newark people. Will bring renewed encouragement.

Here is a case in point: J. W. Mullen, 6-1-2 E. Church st., Newark, Ohio, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the finest kidney medicine I ever used. When my kidneys got out of order, the secretions passed too frequently and contained sediment. I had trouble in arising after sitting and could not stoop without great pain. I tried different remedies but until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the City Drug Store, nothing helped me. Their use completely cured me. The pains stopped and my kidneys became regular in action."

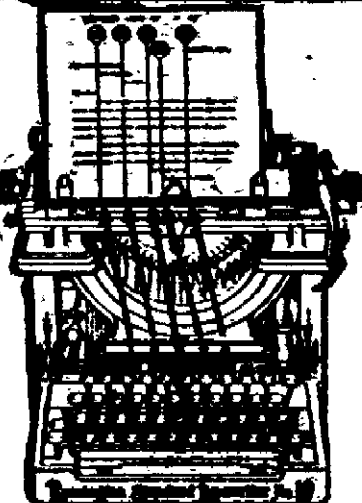

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TO MAKE TABLE CLOTHS LAST. Table linen is expensive. It costs more today than it did five years ago. When it begins to wear in holes, to come from the wash with worn spots that tell how soon it will be no good, no wonder the housewife despairs. Cheap, common soap full of caustic that eat the linen are greatly to blame. Easy Task laundry soap is an enemy to dirt and stains and a friend to the table linen. Get two five cent cakes; try it, and if it does not surprise and satisfy you the makers will return your money.

The Wants are interesting tonight.

Typewriters which require hand settings of the carriage in order to reach the starting point of any line are now out-of-date. They have been rendered obsolete by the

Column Selector of the Remington

Typewriter Visible Model 10

The Column Selector of the Model 10 Remington selects the exact point in each line where the writing is to begin—not by a step to step movement of the carriage—not by tedious hand adjustments—but by the automatic response of the carriage to the pressure of a single key.

In ordinary letter writing, the position for writing the date, the address, the first line of each paragraph, "Yours truly," and addressing the envelopes is reached instantly, the hands of the operator never leaving the keyboard.

The time saving? Figured on the basis of the operator's wages, it amounts to enough in a short time to pay for the machine.

Both are Right.

Theodore Roosevelt, candidate for a third term as President, said recently: "Taft now represents the bosses, and the Republican party is composed of them and the vested interests of the country."

And President Taft said: "Roosevelt is not a Republican, but represents a one-man party whose chief advisers are the harvester and steel trust magnates."

Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, also a Republican, says both Taft and Roosevelt are telling the truth about each other. And LaFollette has had enough experience with both Messrs. Taft and Roosevelt to know what he is talking about.

The answer is: Win with Wilson!

Tariff Tax Extortions.

Here are some figures showing the tariff tax paid by the average American family which tell their own story:

Wage earner's family.....$ 32 a year
Salary earner's family..... 140 a year
Professional man's family.. 140 a year

Senator Clapp Testifies.

Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, says:
"You will hear it said constantly, with reference to something on which the price has been advanced, 'Oh, that isn't in the tariff at all. That increase has nothing to do with the tariff.' But the fact is that the tariff reaches all along the line. You can't raise the cost of living to a man who is producing something to sell without forcing that man to raise correspondingly the price of what he has to sell."

RAILROAD LABOR LEADER FAVORS
COX FOR GOVERNOR

Fred L. Feick, Indiana's railroad labor leader, who is considered one of the most successful legislative representatives labor organizations have ever had in the Hoosier state, has endorsed the candidacy of Congressman James M. Cox of Dayton, for governor. Mr. Feick has just entered Ohio for an eight days' campaign in the interest of the state and national tickets.

He has stamped his approval on Wilson and Marshall, and endorses them for president and vice president.

He says the wage earners of the state they represent have received more legislation than ever before in their history.

"I desire to say that the Hon. James

Years of Suffering
Catarh and Blood Disease—
Doctors Failed to Cure.
Miss Mabel P. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Port Wayne, Ind., writes:
"For three years I was troubled with catarh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarh."

THE IMPENDING POLITICAL CHANGE.

(Enquirer.)
Whichever of the political parties is placed in national power through the election of November, 1912, it is already assured that no campaign since that of 1860 has exhibited the abandonment of former issues, the disintegration of one of the two great political parties of the country and the adoption of new thoughts, new ideals and new policies by the electorate of the republic, as in the pending contest.

Assuming that the Republican party is now the most conservative of any in the field, yet the Republican party of today does not place its legislative leaders, the directors of its policies for the past 25, 20, 16, 12, 8 or even 4 years ago, in the forefront of its campaign lest their appearance in the battle should lose the party the votes of the populace.

The old leaders have lost their usefulness, not through lack of personal ability, but through the failure of the policies they are identified with to fit the times, or to retain the approval of the masses of the people.

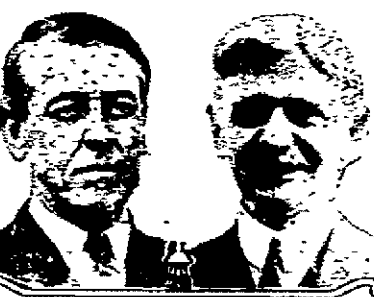

The younger element among the Republican party leaders were quick to note the changed political sentiments of the people, and, regarding the future rather than the past, were eager to take up with what has now developed into the National Progressive party.

Today that new party, as shown by the reports from all sections of the country, is drawing to itself adherents

M. Cox's record as a congressman has been of such nature that he deserves the earnest consideration and approval of every wage earner in the state of Ohio, in the coming election," says Feick. "He has at all times, given personal aid and assistance to the labor cause, and it would be very ungrateful of the working people of this state if they failed to express their appreciation of this fact at the polls in November."

A poll of the Dayton Soldiers Home taken by the field agent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, brought out the result that Congressman James M. Cox is the favorite of the veterans. Mr. Cox, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is the choice of the veterans over the Republican candidate for Governor almost two to one.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Note—Names of all candidates for judicial positions will be printed on a separate, non-partisan ballot, without party emblem or designation of any sort. The voter must place an X in front of the name of each candidate for whom he desires to vote. The Democratic candidates are:
For Judges of Supreme Court—J. Foster Wilkin (2 years); Oscar W. Newman (6 years); William E. Scofield (6 years).
For Judge of Circuit Court—L. K. Powell, of Morrow county, for long term; F. M. Marriott, of Delaware county, for short term.
For Judges of Common Pleas Court—Thomas P. Fulton, of Newark; R. L. Carr of Mt. Vernon.
For Judge of Probate Court—Robbins Hunter.

The National Progressive party is the logical result of the past 16 years of Republican failure to carry out the constantly advancing ideas of the masses of its members, a result hastened to positive antagonism and open opposition by the machine methods at Chicago.

Those machine methods were undoubted followers of precedents, but the fact that the voters of today in all parties are smashing machine precedents was overlooked by the old-time politicians.

The Republicans of 1850, 1854, 1896, 1900, 1904, and 1908 permitted those machine methods, yet the revolt and declaration of independence at Chicago was but the outburst of the discontent that for years had awaited the time, the place and the leader.

November, 1912, will register the advance of administration policies for the republic to much higher ideals, and it will record as great a change in national affairs as did the Democratic split in 1860.

CARRYING HIS BAGGAGE.

FAMOUS SPANISH BULL FIGHTER MAY GIVE EXHIBITION IN NEWARK

Six feet tall he is, and he weighs over two hundred pounds. Erect as a ramrod, yet moving with all the sinuous grace of a cat, Senor Enrique Robles, champion bull-fighter of Spain and Mexico, who is stopping at the Sherwood Hotel, bowed low and with, "I am glad to meet you, Senor," almost crushed the hand of the Advocate man who called to see him with a gentle handclasp.

Senor Robles, who comes to Newark from Wheeling, is making arrangements to give an exhibition here on Saturday, October 12th. The affable Castilian, who has performed before King Alfonso, does nothing that will bring the wrath of the Humane society upon his head, but instead, unarmed submits to the attack of the fiercest bulls that can be found, and through his science and agility, toys with the infuriated animal.

The visitor has given exhibitions in New York, Cleveland, Columbus, Wheeling and Cincinnati, and in his book of newspaper clippings the scribbled interviews and feature stories from metropolitan papers from New York to San Francisco, "Bullfighter," he is called and "Matedo" and "Picador" and "Torador," but he is none, and all of these are confined his exhibitions to the spectacular feat of assuring all the risk and danger himself and allowing his opponent every advantage.

Driven from Mexico by the revolution, his $100,000 arena destroyed and his bulls and horses killed, he has come to "your great America" as he calls it to give exhibitions of his hazardous calling.
"Your American bulls are cowards," said Senor Robles to the Advocate man, "and next year I shall return, bringing with me four Mexican bulls that will really fight."
"I want to give an exhibition of bull dodging in Newark," he said, "and I shall stay here until the arrangements can be made."
Two hundred pounds of bone and muscle, the Spaniard at once convinces one that he will make a fit opponent for any animal that may be pitted against him, and provide a spec-

CORBETT RALLIES
FROM OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 3.—Surgeons at the Jefferson hospital say that the operation for appendicitis performed there upon James J. Corbett, former champion pugilist, insures him a fair chance of recovery.

Corbett made a decided turn for the better soon after daylight, and slept easily all the morning. Expressions of sympathy were sent to the hospital from all parts of the country today. Sporting men and actors were represented in the telegrams.

Fight experts say "Gentleman Jim" has never been the same since he received the solar plexus wallop from Fitzsimmons, which lost him the world's championship, and they attribute his present attack to an injury received at that time.

HEARD ROOSEVELT; DIED OF PARALYSIS

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—Richard T. Gray, member of the North Carolina Bar, died Wednesday following a stroke of paralysis suffered when hearing Colonel Roosevelt speak Tuesday night. Wednesday a second stroke killed him in five minutes. He was 65 years old and the father of Robert Lilly Gray, editor of the Richmond Virginian, a well known magazine and editorial writer. During his earlier years he was prominent in politics, but never held office. He leaves a wife and three children and four brothers, all of whom have won distinction.

YOUR GREAT GRANDMOTHER MADE SOAP.

She would fill a barrel with wood ashes, let rain water seep through them to make lye, and then have soap boiling day, using all the bacon rinds and scraps of fat meat and grease she had saved. She made soft soap. Nowadays women don't have to ruin their tempers and their health and their looks making soap, or toiling all day over the washing. Easy Task soap—a pure, white laundry soap made of clean tallow, coconut oil, borax and naphtha does the hard half of the work in the laundry and everywhere else in the house that a safe and sure cleaner is needed.

Crossed Legs and Appendicitis.
If you are given to the habit of sitting cross legged stop it. It may not be true, as Dr. Arnold Lorand suggests, that it increases the likelihood of your having appendicitis through its tendency to clog the caecum, but it isn't a habit to be encouraged, especially in public places, like street cars.

Don't let it turn grey. Don't let the Dandruff get a foothold and start the hair falling out.
It's not natural that young women should have thin grey hair that they cannot dress becomingly.
It should always be natural-colored—luxuriant—full of life and radiance—free from ugly grey hairs and annoying Dandruff.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair, we prove it.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

SOCIETY

COOPERRIDER-GUTTRIDGE.
On Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Guttridge, of near Brownsville occurred the wedding of their daughter, Miss Aljo, Guttridge and Mr. Elmer O. Cooperrider, both popular young people of that vicinity. Elder U. G. Porter performed the ceremony, after which an elaborate dinner was served. Besides the immediate families those present were Elder and Mrs. U. G. Porter and Miss Alta Bixler.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wingerter entertained a few friends informally at their home in West Church street on Tuesday evening in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary. A delicious six o'clock dinner was served, the table decorations being roses and greenery. Created for the centerpiece was a bouquet of American Beauty roses around which were placed a number of small candles. The guests were seated by hand painted place cards and the favors were tiny golden slippers filled with rice. The wedding cake was surmounted by a wedding ring on which was perched a white dove. After dinner the guests were entertained by vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. Wingerter and Miss Kernin of Wheeling.

On the social calendar for this evening is the wedding of Miss Corinne Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller and Mr. Lee R. Huff of Louisville, Ky. The wedding will be solemnized at the Second Presbyterian church by Prof. C. L. Williams at 8 o'clock and a reception will follow at Assembly Hall.

GREENER-CLOMAN.
Very pretty were the arrangements in connection with the wedding of Miss Mabel Axline Cloman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wesley Cloman of Zanesville, to Mr. Erle Carlton Greiner of Newark, which was celebrated at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening at the St. John English Lutheran church with Rev. Oliver F. Weaver of Cleveland officiating.

The services were beautiful, the bride having a number of attendants. She entered with her brother, Major S. A. Cloman, U. S. A. who was in full dress uniform. The bridal robe was of white satin, entraine with a bodice of chiffon and dachess lace caught with sprays of orange blossoms.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cloman of 226 Thurman street. The decorations at the home were in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Greiner left after the wedding for their home in Newark. They will reside at 36 East North street. Mr. Greiner is in charge of the credit department of Swisher Bros. A number of out of town guests were in attendance at the wedding among them being Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swingle and daughter, Miss Mary Swingle of Newark.

SWISHER-TREMBLEY.
Announcement is made of the marriage in Zanesville on Thursday morning of Mr. Carl S. Swisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Swisher of Hudson avenue to Miss Elizabeth Trembley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Trembley of Zanesville, O.

The wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the Central Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning and the young people were unaccompanied. The marriage service was read by Rev. Walter L. Whallon, pastor of the church.

The announcement comes as a distinct surprise to the many friends of Mr. Swisher in Newark and his marriage made the second one in 24 hours from the office force of the Swisher Brothers cigar manufacturing plant where Mr. Swisher is employed. The other one was that of Mr. Greiner, and both took place in Zanesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Swisher will take up their residence in Newark.

On Wednesday evening in Assembly Hall was given the first of the winter series of dances of the Centum club. Dancing was enjoyed between the hours of 8:30 and 12:00 to the strains of Steven's orchestra. About 10:30 lunch was served in the balcony.

The dancers were Messrs. and Mesdames D. J. Taylor, W. K. Daugherty, Geo. C. Vail, Frank A. Grandie, H. R. Rodgers, J. M. Ankele, T. E. Shortell, E. V. Prior, C. F. Ferguson, Wm. Health and Beauty Hints

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

B. Sister: It is right that the patrons of your "beauty parlors" should object to snappers made from soap on account of the great danger of the soap alkali ruining the lustre of the hair. Try a shampoo made by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water and after shampooing, rinse the hair as usual. Canthrox makes the most satisfactory shampoo. It lathers splendidly and is the best and most thorough scalp-cleanser I have ever seen. It relieves scalp irritation and leaves the hair bright, soft, fluffy and easy to do up. This shampoo permits the hair to dry quickly, is very beneficial to the scalp and does not discolor hair as soap and most shampoos are likely to do.

Mrs. L. G.: It is not necessary that your face reflect your age. You could easily have a much finer, clearer, smoother and more youthful complexion if you quit using powder and tried a good lotion. Dissolve four ounces of sprum in a half-pint hot water or witch hazel and add two teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Apply this to your face, neck and arms and it will improve your looks wonderfully. It will soften and whiten your skin and remove that skin-grazing look. This inexpensive lotion will not rub off like powder, and is very beneficial in preventing and removing freckles and skin-pimples. It is a wonderful skin beautifier. You can get anything I recommend at almost any drug store.

"Weak Eyes": Wearing glasses is not likely to help your weak, dull, inflamed eyes. What you need is a good strengthening eye-tonic. The next time you go to a drug store get an ounce of erythro and dissolve it in a pint of water. Drop a few drops in each eye occasionally and you will be surprised how soon it will give you relief. It will not smart or burn the eyes and is a perfectly reliable tonic for any one who has eye troubles. It is splendid for treating watery, expressionless eyes or granulated lids. It makes the eyes bright, strong and sparkling.

R. K.: I would advise you to seek health first, before beauty. You say you are not sick but that you feel tired always, look sallow and have pimples and eruptions. Try this home-made blood purifier and system-tonic: Get from your drugist one ounce of hardone, dissolve it in one-half pint of alcohol (not whiskey), and add one-half cupful of sugar, then enough hot water to make a full quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal. This remedy should tone up your system and build up your strength; it aids digestion, and cures liver troubles, and purifies the blood. When your blood is pure, your sallowness and pimples will disappear and you will have more strength and energy.

Grace: No, I know it doesn't add to your peace of mind when you are conscious that you are getting so fat that your dress is continually gaping in the back and you fear the constant strain will prove too much for the buttons. If you want to put down your flesh without starving yourself or without tiring and futile exercise, go to your drugist and get four ounces of quinine dissolved in one-half pint of alcohol (not whiskey) and add one-half pint water. This will put your hair and scalp in a healthy condition. Apply the tonic twice a week, rubbing it gently into the hair-roots. It is free from oil and makes a fine dressing for the hair. I know of many who were troubled with "hopeless" cases of dandruff and falling hair that found this an ideal tonic.

Jessie P. H.: Some sage dressings are beneficial to the scalp, but I never recommend them on account of the danger of staining or discoloring the hair. If you want a good, dependable remedy for dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, try an ounce of quinine dissolved in one-half pint of alcohol (not whiskey) and add one-half pint water. This will put your hair and scalp in a healthy condition. Apply the tonic twice a week, rubbing it gently into the hair-roots. It is free from oil and makes a fine dressing for the hair. I know of many who were troubled with "hopeless" cases of dandruff and falling hair that found this an ideal tonic.

Madge: For your hollow cheeks and wrinkled face, I recommend frequent applications of a good greaseless complexion cream. It also brisks up the skin. By stirring together one ounce of cream, two teaspoonfuls of glycerine and one-half pint cold water, allowing to stand over night, you will have an extra good complexion cream. Use this also for massaging and it will clear up your skin fine, removing all dirt from the pores and soon you will find your complexion smooth, fresh-looking and untroubled. This is an excellent cream for treating blackheads, freckles and roughness of the skin and will rid your face of those very large pores.

Mary B.: Applying a delicate paste to the hairy surface for two or three minutes will remove every trace of hair from your skin. To prepare, mix one ounce of salicylic acid powder to cover the hairs not wanted. After it is removed the skin should be washed carefully. This method is unaffailing and is not injurious to the most sensitive skin.

E. D.: Your eyelashes will grow long and thick if you apply a full quart of pyroxin at last-roots with thumb and forefinger. Straggle eyebrows will come in thick and glossy merely by applying a pyroxin with finger-end. Be very careful and don't get pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

PIMPLES GO—BEAUTY COMES

You Just Can't Help Having a Beautiful Complexion If You Use Stuart's Calcium Waters.

Pimples! Horrors! And what a wonderful change when they are all gone. Most every one has noticed this.

Nowadays, when you see a real beauty, the chances are Stuart's Calcium Waters wrought that wonderful change. It takes only a short time, even with very bad complexions—the kind that are disfigured with rash, eczema, boils, blotches and liver spots.

Stuart's Calcium Waters cause the skin pores to breathe out impurities. The lungs burn up a great amount, but Nature imposes upon the skin the larger burden. Every tick of the clock means work, work, work for these wonderful waters. And very instant new skin is forming, impurities become less and less, the pores are re-invigorated, and soon such a thing as a pimple, blackhead or any other eruption is impossible. You marvel at the change. The soft, rosy tint love taps the cheeks; the neck, shoulders and arms show the health of youthful skin—in fact, you just can't help having a beautiful complexion if you use Stuart's Calcium Waters.

They are put up in convenient form to carry with you, are very palatable, and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents a box.

COMMUNICATED

My Dear Mr. Editor: I would like to know by what right, either legal or moral, permission has been granted to those in charge of the carnival now operating on East Main street, to use the street for such a purpose.

It is an outrage upon the people of Trinity church to erect almost upon their doorsteps a tent in which Oriental dances are given. I wish to make a protest with all the earnestness in my power against such an invasion of our rights. It is bad enough to have such an exhibition any place in the city, but to flaunt it in the face of a church evinces moral obtuseness on the part of some person or persons that will bring down upon their heads the severest condemnation. When men show such an utter lack of respect toward God and religion, the city is indeed getting in a bad way. I would not charge anything with the intention of deliberately insulting Trinity church, although such an offense has been given. But I do say that carelessness and thoughtlessness have been shown, which are little short of criminal.

LEWIS P. FRANKLIN,
Rector of Trinity Church.

SEAT DELIVERY FOR WORLD'S SERIES BEGAN THURSDAY

Boston, Oct. 3.—Delivery of world's series reserved seat tickets for the games that are to be played in Boston, began today. Notices were mailed to fortunate applicants last night to call at the club headquarters for the tickets that have been allotted them. The officials plan to have the distribution continue from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. every week day until the opening of home games of the series.

The temporary seating arrangements have been completed and the field has been put in the best possible shape.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

THE INNER GROWING TIT-BITS.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
Give instant allegiance to paper bag cookery, all ye who dote upon inner growing tit-bits. Livers, for example, and hearts, brains, sweetbreads, kidneys.

There are livers and livers. Chicken livers are much in request. Take six, fresh and sound. Wash very clean in cold water, drain well, salt very lightly, but do not pepper. Barely dust with flour, then wrap each liver in a very thin slice of streaky bacon, skewer it on with a toothpick and clip off the sharp ends after skewering. Lay compactly but without crowding in a well-buttered bag, add a teaspoonful of water, a tablespoonful of tomato catsup, or fresh tomatoes peeled and sliced, or else half a gill of stock, flavored with celery, seal and cook twenty-five minutes in a fairly hot oven.

Giblet patties suit some palates. To make them, parboil the giblets, mash or mince fine, throwing out all strings or lumps, also shreds of onion and a very little celery, with, if you like, a grate of nutmeg or of lemon peel. Moisten with melted butter or rich stock, cut five inch squares of good puff paste, cover half each diagonally with the prepared liver, fold over the other half, pinch tight together and bake in a well greased bag fifteen minutes in a fairly hot oven.

Parboil a pound of calf's liver. When tender, but not ragged, take up cool and cut in strips as thick as they are wide. Wrap each strip in a slice of thin bacon, roll in flour, put in a bag with a little butter—the bag must be well greased—and cook for ten minutes in a hot oven.

Baked lamb's heart is much approved by those who like that sort of thing. Get three hearts, cut out the tops and soak at least two hours in cold slightly salted water to remove the blood. Take out, rinse, drain well, stuff with bread crumbs or any stuffing approved—even plain mashed potatoes or boiled rice will answer. Fasten the tops well over the stuffing. Lay in a well buttered bag and cook for fifty minutes to an hour in a fairly hot oven.

Ect heart can be cooked the same way, but must soak longer—three hours at least. It must also cook longer, the time depending on the weight.

Split and clean lamb kidneys, scald in lightly salted water very quickly, drop in cold water a minute or two, then cut in quarters. Take a spoonful of flour and season it well with salt, pepper and a very little grated nutmeg. Roll the quartered kidneys in it, then shake upon each a single drop of tabasco. Get a fine skewer and have ready thin sliced, streaky bacon. Thread one end of a slice on the skewer, then put on a piece of kidney, double the free end of the bacon over the point, and skewer it fast. Add another piece of kidney, fold the bacon again. When the slice gives out put on a fresh one. Leave the point of the skewer projecting almost an inch, then stick over the point a piece of white potato so that it will not tear the bag. Fill as many skewers as needed, lay them points foremost, that is toward the mouth, in a well buttered bag. Add a lump of butter rolled in flour and a spoonful of tomato catsup, or half a spoonful of Worcester sauce, and the same amount of water. Seal and cook in a hot oven fifteen to twenty-five minutes, depending on how heavily the bag is loaded.

Chicken livers, or those of squab, can be cooked in the same manner, leaving out the catsup and adding only the butter. Beef kidney, sliced rather thin, highly seasoned, and cooked between thin slices of bacon for twelve minutes in a hot oven, is a near approach to grilled kidney.

Blanche, sweetbreads, by scalding them in a slightly salted water then parboil, and put between plates to press. Trim neatly, put in a very well greased bag with a sauce of butter, cream, sherry wine and seasoning—only be careful to touch lightly with the herbs—and cook forty minutes to an hour in an even oven only moderately hot.

Brains of any sort must be scalded in boiling salt water, peeled and dropped in cold water for at least ten minutes. Half an hour will not hurt. The ways of cooking them are many. For scrambled brains, parboil them until they just begin to break, drain out, and mix with beaten eggs, adding seasoning to taste. Pour into a well buttered bag with an extra lump of butter at the bottom of it, lay another lump on top, seal and cook in a hot oven twenty-five to fifty minutes, according to the size of the bag.

The brain-and-egg mixture can be served for breakfast or a late supper on toast thus: Have rounds of crisp buttered toast, cover neatly with the mixture, sprinkle with grated Parmesan and dot with bits of butter. Cook inside a well greased bag ten to twelve minutes in a fairly hot oven. Serve very hot with ale and sour pickles.

Brains scalded and peeled can be cooked with strips of bacon laid over them, adding a very little stock or milk and water. Season them to taste and cook in a fairly hot oven twenty-five to thirty-five minutes. Serve with baked apples or baked sweet potatoes. The brains are so rich that they cloy without something of that sort on the side.

OBITUARY

GLADYS PAULINE BAUGHER.
Miss Gladys Pauline Baugher, aged 18 years, died at her home just west of the Licking church, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of some time of tuberculosis. She is survived by her father and two brothers, Ray and Clarence.

The funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home, Rev. Mr. McCall of Worthington officiating. Interment in the Kirkersville cemetery.

MRS. HANNAH BEUTLICH.
Mrs. Hannah Beutlich, wife of Peter Beutlich, the tailor, died at her home, 342 West Church street, at 4 o'clock Thursday morning, her last illness having lasted only since last Saturday, although for a long time past she had not been in robust health. Last Saturday night she was stricken with a sort of paralysis of the brain, and never regaining consciousness, she grew rapidly worse until the end came peacefully.

The deceased was the only daughter of Mr. Daniel E. Jones and was born in Newark in April, 1879, being therefore 42 years of age at the time of her death.

In 1902 she was united in marriage to Peter Beutlich and to them were born three children, two of whom are dead, the surviving son, Harry Beutlich, being a clerk in the B. & O. division engineer's office in this city.

Besides her husband and son, Mrs. Beutlich leaves her aged father and one brother, Charles R. Jones, to mourn her death.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home, Rev. Calvin Hazlet, pastor of the First Presbyterian church conducting the services. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Billy Was Only Lost In Dreams

The Dog Found Billy Under the Hay.

THE children were always glad to go and visit grandma and grandpa. Grandma petted them and cooked nice things for them to eat, while grandpa was always trying to think up new games and new amusements. Besides, there was the big barn in which daddy and all the uncles and aunts had played when they were children and which Jack and Evelyn always found great fun.

"The barn is a fine place to play in," said daddy. "I'll never forget the fun I used to have when I was a boy climbing up in the haymow."

"Our barn was quite a little way from the house, and father seldom locked it. One afternoon mother said that a neighbor spoke of having seen tramps going by, and after that he thought he would lock up the barn."

"That afternoon we had a glorious game of robbers' cave in the barn. Our children and the children of two or three neighbors were there."

"When it was nearly supper time we stopped playing. The other children got ready to go home, and we, too, started to the house."

"Where's Billy?" some one said. Billy was a three-year-old neighbor and had come with his sister, who was my sister's chum.

"Oh, Billy must have gone home," said his sister. "He would want something to eat before this." Then we said good night very merrily and went our ways.

"It was almost dark, and a little later our father came in after having fed the animals and locked the barn."

"We were just sitting down to supper when some one knocked at the door. It was Billy's mother, and she was crying. 'Oh, my little boy is lost! Hattie says he came home when the children were playing together, but I haven't seen him. We've searched everywhere, and now my husband is going down to look in the creek.'"

"Cheer up," father said heartily; "the creek is too shallow to drown a cat. Sit down a bit and tell us all about it."

"Father asked if any of us had noticed Billy start home. No one could remember to have seen him."

"I'll go with a lantern and take a look around the barn," said father.

"We all followed him, and, though we looked in every corner, we could not see any trace of Billy. We noticed Don, our neighbor's dog, hunting about. After while he went up into the haymow and began scratching and whining. After he had tossed the hay to one side we saw what he was after. Little Billy, tired out with play, had gone to sleep under the hay, which he had drawn over himself in our game of hide and seek."

Fine Window at Parish Store.

The C. R. Parish furniture store has a fine window display that has been attracting much attention. It represents a hunting scene. Not a thing is lacking to make this scene realistic—woods, hunter with his gun, with plenty of game in sight—all are in evidence and most artistically arranged.

Novel Guessing Contest.

C. B. Pittzer, who captured the prize for the best exhibit of farm products in the big Industrial Parade Wednesday, has secured a number of prizes from local firms which he will award to persons guessing nearest the correct weight of his roke of oxen used in drawing his exhibit in yesterday's parade. The prizes will be announced from the grand stand.

Covered the Two Bits.

A dusky huec fair follower was arrested on complaint of a carnival visitor who claimed that the fellow had placed his foot on a quarter which the former had secured in the midway and refused to lift his foot, but afterwards "lifted" the coin. The complainant failed to appear in police court but Mayor Swartz held the fellow over and ordered his release this evening with instructions to the mulatto to make himself scarce as soon as he breathes the air of freedom.

PRISONER HAD REAL "SNAKES"

A young man came up on the tripper from Buckeye Lake to Hebron Thursday morning, shortly under the influence of intoxicants. He entered the telephone exchange and asked for a New Lexington 100 connection. He became very annoying and the village marshal was called and took the young man in tow. On the way to the calaboose the fellow pulled a snake about two feet long out of his pocket and offered it to the guardian of the law. The latter loosened his hold on the prisoner for an instant, as he was not overly fond of snakes, but when the fellow endeavored to make a get away he was again grabbed and after the reptile had been disposed of he was placed in durance vile.

He went to the county fair and while there a dip nicker him for a poke containing sixty cases—that is to say, County Commissioners—George Tavenner, a visitor to the Licking county's big industrial exposition on Wednesday afternoon, carrying in his pocket a wallet containing the sum of $50. During the course of the afternoon he was the subject of the operations of a pickpocket, who relieved him of the money.

"Did you go to the fair?" asked a court house attaché this morning.

"Yeah," answered the commissioner, "but I wish I hadn't."

Ask the best painter you know of about AURORA MIXED PAINT.

If he doesn't know from experience, get him to try it.

The amount you save on the job will justify the experiment. He won't need to paint the whole house to find out. He can tell by the FEEL of the paint, as it spreads on, that he is working with EXCEPTIONALLY good paint.

AURORA PAINT is practical. It is such a paint as the painter would mix for himself if he had our facilities.

It is a pure lead and linseed oil paint strengthened—not cheapened—by the correct proportion of inert pigments to give it durability. It is economical, not because of price, but because of the surface it covers and the length of its life.

PAINTERS' SUPPLY HOUSE

We are manufacturers, but we do not limit our stock to our own products. We carry everything modern painters, paper-hangers or interior decorators need in their business. If you have a painting or interior finishing problem, consult us about it.

THE Y. W. C. A.

Friends, Newark citizens, lend me your ears!

Does Newark need a Y. W. C. A.? Does a farmer need to plow his corn to keep the weeds from choking it out? Surely there could not be a thinking person in our town who, knowing the dangers and temptations that assault our young girls in particular who would not answer my question in the affirmative.

What have we to offer our girls in the way of a proper place of entertainment and development, physical, mental and spiritual that will interest them and furnish the amusement and recreation they so naturally crave and have so artificially supplied?

The time seems to have past when we can expect our daughters to stay at home and read or sew around the family lamp. They seem to flutter instead about the arc lights of the square for lack of a better place to go. Is it not our duty as a town to surround the girls who will be responsible for the next generation of Newark's citizens with all the good influences possible—for there will always be enough of the bad to make straight going difficult.

Could any one agency or institution better supply the needs of the Newark girls and women than a Y. W. C. A. with its opportunities for social life and affairs; its gymnasium for physical betterment; its classes, if the girls want them, in millinery and dress-making, stenography, literature or whatever branches of instruction the girls demand, not to mention the Saturday supper club for the girls who have later hours and the rest rooms for the business woman or girl to go, who in any way needs the club's hospitality?

A Y. W. C. A. will make in every way for better Newark.

FIRST THINGS

The first man to suggest that California be seized by the United States was George Bancroft, the first great American historian, who was born near Worcester, Mass., 112 years ago today. He was the author of the first authoritative and complete "History of the United States" and his career as a diplomat and statesman was only surpassed by his greatness as a historian. He was secretary of the navy when Polk was president, and to him, more than any other man, belongs the credit of founding the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. Bancroft died in Washington early in 1891, and in obedience to his request, his body was taken to his native city of Worcester for burial. Bancroft's suggestion that California should be taken over by the United States in the event of hostilities with Mexico was immediately adopted by the officials of the government and may have had something to do with the declaration of war against the southern republic.

DE PALMA

DEFIED DEATH AND WON THE FAMOUS VANDERBILT CUP RACE.

For Last Fifty Minutes He Drove Like a Frenzied With Near Tire in Tatters.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 3.—Staking his chances and his life for the last fifty miles on a torn rear tire, Ralph De Palma, in a Mercedes car won the Vanderbilt cup race of 300 miles over the Wauwatosa course Wednesday by a desperate driving finish that caused the 35,000 spectators to repeatedly gasp in terror.

Tearing after him with less than a minute's time separating them, came Hugh Hughes, driving a Mercer. Racing smoothly and going like a streak, the young Englishman hung on. De Palma knew that one of his tires was nearly gone. For the last three or four laps it simply whirled in tatters of rubber.

De Palma also knew—being informed by big signs from his pit—that Hughes was close and coming fast. He therefore knew that if he stopped to replace the torn tire he probably would lose the race. So he gambled on the tire, flinched with death and the tire held fast to the finish.

Only 42.75 seconds separated them at the finish, and when the smiling young Italian dashed across the line a winner, the crowd that had been standing en masse cheered him to the echo. Scarcely less of an ovation was tendered Hughes who certainly drove a magnificent race.

Spencer Wishart, driving a Mercedes, finished third, and Gil Anderson, in a Stutz, was fourth. "Teddy" Tetzlaff in a Fiat and Ralph Mulford, in a Knox Special, both came to grief and had to retire from the race.

Aside from De Palma's death-daring finish and Hughes's steady, brilliant race, the furious speed made at the start by Tetzlaff and Mulford was the feature of the day.

De Palma's average time for the whole course, including the hairpin bend, was 69 miles per hour. Hughes averaged 68.8, but "Terrible Teddy" Tetzlaff for more than 200 miles averaged more than 72 miles per hour and part of the time was negotiating the course at 74.4 miles per hour.

Glides Tour Called Off.

New York, Oct. 3.—There will be no Glidden automobile tour this year. This has been announced by the national tour committee of the American Automobile association, which decided to postpone the contest until some time next year.

The principal reason given was that many automobilists who wanted to enter the contest did not care to be away from their home for three weeks just before election. It was stated also that objections had been made to many sections of the proposed route from Detroit to New Orleans. Next year an earlier date will be chosen, and meantime changes will be made in the route.

VALIDITY

Of Nonpartisan Judiciary Law Upheld by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Ohio's non-partisan judiciary law was held valid and constitutional by the supreme court today. The decision was given in the case of Morris J. Weinberger, a Cleveland taxpayer, who asked for an injunction to prevent the Cuyahoga county election board printing the names of judicial candidates on the separate ballots, and the case of Ernie D. Fritch of Akron, to compel the election board of Summit county to print his name on a party ticket as its candidate for judge. The court held against both contestants. The nonpartisan judiciary law provides for the election of all judicial candidates, from justice of the supreme court to justice of the peace, in a strictly non-partisan manner, by placing their names on an independent ballot, without party designation. The opposition contended that the law deprives the elector of his constitutional right by taking away his means of knowing the political principles of the candidates.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents a quart) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been copied. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.

The Mae LaPorte Stock company was seen on Wednesday evening in a dramatization of a romantic novel which had a large clientele, the story of the madcap "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall." Miss LaPorte appeared in the title role and was well supported by the members of the company in the various roles.

This evening will be seen the feature bill of the week's repertoire, Viola Allen's starring vehicle, "The White Sister." Undoubtedly it will see a capacity audience.

NEWARK BUSINESS MAN PRAISES "LOUISIANA LOU."

Mr. Geo. Hermann, one of Newark's leading clothing men, has the following to say of "Louisiana Lou" which will be seen at the Auditorium theatre Friday evening of this week with Sophie Tucker and Barney Berhard in the leading roles: Having seen "Louisiana Lou" at the Grand Opera house in Cincinnati week before last by the same company that appears here Friday evening, I can truthfully say that I think it the cleverest musical comedy I've ever seen and there surely is a treat in store for Newark theatre-goers tomorrow night. I liked it so well that I intend going to see it again here.—Geo. Hermann.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

Of all the big special programs that have been produced at the Orpheum theatre, the bill for the last half of this week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has them all beat.

Manager Boyce is determined to put forth the real shows to his patrons. The feature of many features on this bill is the little company of Ellskey-Ottle-Ellskey, in their screaming farce comedy. This act has just finished playing the Keith circuit and starts on the Gus Sun time from Newark. This is a high class, high priced act and has always made good. The next big number on the bill is the Hilkons, in a comedy singing, talking and novelty act, a new one. And the Emeralds & Dixie company furnish Spanish and Mexican songs and dances; selections from Grand opera. Sanders and Van Kuntz also have a big winner in their little playlet, entitled "Texas Jimmie." This act is new and different to all others. Then the Murrscope in a big special feature film will close the program. If you want a real up-to-date vaudeville show the place to go is to the Orpheum.

HOODOO MOCKED BY "LOUISIANA LOU."

"Louisiana Lou" as a title for musical comedy, means nothing. It will handicap your play so that it will have to be 50 per cent. better than the public requires to get by with such a title.

Thus spoke Zarathustra as reincarnated in the person of one of the foremost producing managers of the day when, as long ago as last August, he was told in confidence of the title of this year's musical play for the LaSalle Opera House, Chicago. The oracle went on:

"At least 10 per cent. of the failures of latter day musical comedy may be blamed on bad titles. It takes so long to overcome a bad title with a good show that the managers get tired waiting for business to pick up, and quits—or else he goes broke, when, also, he quits. Change your title to get ready for a battle against public sensitiveness against such matters."

And, as the producer in question had put forward some of the most weird and unattractive titles of the age, the authors, Addison Burkhardt, Frederick Donaghy and Ben M. Jerome decided to stand by their original name. The manager who advised against it has this season put into the storehouse two musical plays, and is wondering how much longer he will keep a third going because of popular indifference.

HUNTER AND TROPHY IN ALASKAN WILDS.

Impressive views of the Alaskan region, numerous scenes of the Eskimo at home with his children and his faithful dogs, pictures of hunting in the Arctic region and studies of the moose, the seal, the walrus, the polar bear and other animals and birds in their native haunts will be given in the Carnegie Alaska-Siberia motion pictures at the Auditorium. As a series of lessons in geography and natural history, the pictures have numerous advantages over the text books, and for excitement and human interest the "Westerners" are outclassed. Six reels will be shown and several stereoscopic views given. There will be pictures both on land and sea, some showing the country in its wild state and others showing it as improved and developed by the hand of man.

Perhaps the most interesting of all is the study of the animals which has been photographed at so close a range that the expressions on their faces may be seen clearly. One in particular, a mother polar bear attacking a huge ship in an effort to free her cub, which had been "roped," was very plain. A look of anguish is visible on the mother's face and the audience applauds liberally when the hunters, who also note the look, free the cub and permit the two to go their way unmolested. The pictures will be shown at the Auditorium Wednesday and Thursday, October 9 and 10, with daily matinees.

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL.

Of all stage managers of the present day, the chances are that none is better qualified to produce "The Bohemian Girl" than is Edward P. Temple, who has staged Balfe's opera on over

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food and the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

Mr. Deane.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. Deane, of New Bedford, S. C., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months. There was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken each bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and read to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 127 pounds."

WINNERS

NIVAL ANNOUNCED WEDNES-DAY NIGHT.

Contests Were Spirited and Friends of Competitors Busy During the Last Day.

The Moose Carnival, where the J. Frank Hark, who are holding forth was a popular sport last night. The blare of bands the song of the merry-go-round, and the ceaseless chatter of the throng of merry makers, together with the shifting hundreds, who crowded the street produced a carnival spirit that proved most contagious, and every concession drew its full share of patronage.

The main feature of the evening was the announcement of the prize winners in the various popular contests which have been conducted under the auspices of the local Moose. When the votes had all been counted, the following results were announced:

Young Ladies' Contest.
First prize—Diamond ring, Miss Lola Rector, 1351 votes.

Second prize—Diamond ring, Miss May Conley, 1150 votes.

Little Girls' Doll Contest.
First prize—Margaret McGonagle, 1155 votes.

Second prize—Elizabeth K. Miller, 1096 votes.

Third prize—Margaret Scouffer, 1013 votes.

Boys' Bicycle Contest.
First prize—Bicycle, James Baruxes, 349 votes.

Second prize—Boys' watch, Carl Green, 1255 votes.

Pretty Baby Contest.
First prize—Diamond ring, Willard Gaudert, 235 votes.

Second prize—Chip diamond ring, Willard Vaughn, 1303 votes.

Homely Man Contest.
Jacob Schrader swept the field of all opponents, and won the prize, a white apple ring, by rolling up a majority of 795 votes.

NEW BETHEL

Rev. H. J. Duckworth, Ph.D., of Mt. Sterling, now pastor of New Bethel Christian Union church, delivered two scholarly addresses Sunday to attentive audiences. His subject Sunday evening, "Little things that develop into great results," especially was a masterful discourse, specially directed to both old and young.

Levi Tuttle and family moved to their new home in Croton Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Deboit are moving on the farm recently purchased of Mr. Tuttle.

Mrs. Alwilda Fessel and son Homer of Condit and Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Glaze spent Sunday afternoon with Doug. Grandstaff and family.

Miss Jodie Clayton spent Sunday with Miss Louie Day.

Rev. H. J. Duckworth was entertained over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Longshore.

Low Hines and family spent Sunday with J. W. Grandstaff and family.

Miss Lela Linnabary spent Sunday with Miss Lela Grandstaff.

Several from this vicinity attended the street fair at Johnstown last week.

Farmers of this vicinity awoke Monday morning to find Jack Frost had been busy during the night. Considerable damage was done to the corn of late planting.

ODDS ARE TURNING AGAINST ROOSEVELT

New York, October 3.—Election betting looked up a bit yesterday in Gotham. This is a resumption after a lapse of several weeks. They took a turn against Roosevelt; and wagers were recorded at 1 to 1 against the Progressive candidate.

Taft's chances, as reflected in the betting, moved up correspondingly, so that he is now placed second, with Wilson leading. Odds are 3 to 1 against Taft, and 2 to 1 in favor of Wilson.

Brokers added that for weeks they had had money to bet at 2 to 1 on Wilson, but that there had been few takers.

One of the interesting side bets offered on the curb is even money Roosevelt will get more votes than Taft.

Another bet was offered of 3 to 1 that Wilson would get more votes than Roosevelt and Taft combined.

One broker offered to risk 3 to 1 that Wilson would beat Taft. That offer, like most of the others, however, received no takers.

ALEXANDRIA

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tyler of Columbus were the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tyler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garry of Matron, Ill., who have been visiting relatives in and near town, left Wednesday of last week for Pataskala to visit relatives before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Winegardner of Auglaize county, visited friends in town the latter part of last week.

The Pataskala and Johnstown street fairs were well represented with visitors from Alexandria and vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Beaumont and daughter, Sarah of Newark spent Saturday with friends in town.

Rev. E. S. Rothrock of Cleveland, state superintendent of Home Missions of the Congregational churches, filled the pulpit in the Congregational Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Clarice Carroll entertained the King's Daughters club at her home, south of town, Tuesday, October 1st. Light refreshments were served.

Rev. K. B. Alexander is attending the M. E. Conference held in Columbus this week. Rev. Mr. Alexander has been with us two years and the M. E. church members and citizens are in hopes he may be returned to this pastorate another year. Mr. Alexander and children are spending the week in Westerville.

A. E. Wiggins of Indiana delivered his lecture on "Forty Years of Foes" in the Auditorium Tuesday night, October 1st, to an appreciative audience. This is the first number on this year's lecture course. Next number will be the "Kaffir Boys Choir," November 7.

HEBRON

The Lyon meetings and Licking country fair at Newark are taking a large number of people from our village this week; as a result Hebron is pretty dull now.

Today We Are Going To Talk About The New Plush And Pile Fabric Coats

Prettier Styles and Lower Prices Than Ever Before

Read The Reason Why It Lets The Whole Secret Out

Many months ago, just after the Fall Styles for this season were designed, Plush and Pile fabric coats took a most decided drop in price—in fact, lower than they had ever been before. Many merchants would not buy them, as they thought they would not be worn much this season, but we took a chance and laid in large supplies at rock bottom prices. You know how good they are now—one of the most popular garments of the season, and prices have advanced over 30 per cent. The manufacturers' advance means that you must pay the retailer a higher price—but not so low. Once again we are going to show our ability to undersell and the prices we quote here today fully demonstrate that fact. All first quality garments guaranteed by us and the makers. We invite your earliest inspection, as later on, when we duplicate, prices are bound to be higher. The largest assortments and lowest prices await you here. Come tomorrow.

Ladies Caraculs $6.75

These garments are tailored from black creped Caracul, with wide lapels and roll collar. Neck lined and finished, through out. Sizes from 14 to 44. We were to buy this garment at the present time we would be compelled to ask $10.00 for it, but in keeping with our policy of giving our customers the best for the money, we place them on sale tomorrow morning at each $6.75

GENUINE SEALETTE PLUSH COATS, SATIN LINED $20

Did you ever read of such values before? We think not, for it's the greatest thing we ever saw in all our years of store keeping. Made from genuine Sealette Plush that has that rich, lustrous color or that is only found in the best qualities of genuine plush. These coats are tailored in the most approved fall and winter styles, buttoning with three frogs. Buttons are of plush, reinforced on the inside. Linings of the best guaranteed satin and come in several shades. Ruffled pocket on the inside. Viewed with a critic's eye, these garments stand forth as productions of master tailors. We doubt if you can duplicate them at $27.50. On sale tomorrow at—each $20.00

Pretty Plushes $14.75

Not made from the dead looking plush that generally sells at $15.00, but from real Sealette that marks the garment of quality. These coats are tailored in exact reproduction of the $20.00 styles, except in a few minor details, such as linings, etc., and the plush is not quite so good a quality. Nevertheless it is worth every cent of $20.00. Tomorrow at—each $14.75

SATIN LINED "SALTEX" COATS $12.00

You know that "Saltex Fur" is—the very finest quality of Caracul that has that exceptionally black appearance. These garments are simply wonderful at the price. Lined throughout with guaranteed satin in such shades as tan, gold, blue, rose and black. You would not hesitate to pay $17.50 for a coat of this caliber, but we are going to save you $5.50 by placing them on sale at—each $12.00

CRUSHED CARACUL $8.50

You might gather from the price that these coats were along the cheap order, but not so. They are the very best crushed caracul coats on the market. Lined with a heavy black satin that wears like iron and looks like satin. If you have shopped around you no doubt saw them priced at $12.50, as one customer told us. All sizes tomorrow at the exceptionally low price of $8.50

Some Exclusive Novelty Styles in Plushes, Persian Lamb, Black Boucle, and Astrachans That Will Prove Attractive to the Woman Who Wants Something Distinctive and Different

NOVELTY PLUSH $22.50

This garment has won the admiration of all who have seen it. Made from the finest quality of plush, with lapels, collar and deep cuffs of Persian lamb. Finished off at bottom with Persian lamb about 18 inches deep. Buttons with large frog and two buttons of plush with silk cord and tassels. Lined with guaranteed satin. A revelation of the designer's art and priced at $22.50

BLACK ASTRACHAN $30.00

These models are certainly beauties, being so much in vogue in the larger cities. They come in severely tailored styles and button with a large frog, with cord and tassels. It is impossible to describe their numerous charms—you simply must see them. To the woman who wants a black coat and something entirely new, we could recommend this garment. Two styles at $30.00 and $35.00

PERSIAN LAMB $35.00

Of course, it's not the real Persian lamb, but such an exact copy that detection is nearly impossible. It's rich, lustrous fur is beautiful to look upon. Made with shawl collar and rolling lapels. Chamois-lined pocket on inside, ruffled with satin at top. The entire garment is lined with Skinner's satin. Buttons with frog and tassels. Priced at a very reasonable figure $35.00

PLUSH COAT TRIMMED IN PERSIAN LAMB AT $18.50

It hardly pays us to advertise this COAT as it sells on sight, but if you have not heard about it here is your opportunity. Made from a good quality of plush with collar, lapels and cuff of PERSIAN LAMB, lined with guaranteed satin, all sizes at each $18.50

ATTORNEY GENERAL GAVE OPINION ON ELECTION POINTS

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Although an amendment adopted by the people of the state at the special constitutional election held Sept. 3, abolishes candidates for that office must be voted on at the November election according to an opinion given today by Attorney General Hogan. All election proceedings must be conducted under the old constitution until Jan. 1, said Mr. Hogan. The attorney general also held that the county sheriffs must issue a proclamation for the election of members of the board of public works, in an opinion given to Sheriff Carroll of Richland county.

The polls on election day in the cities where registration is required will be open from 5:30 to 5:50, central time, according to an opinion of Attorney General Hogan today. In cities where registration is not necessary, the polls will be open from 5:30 to 6.

Saved By His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. E. J. Flint, Brainree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds. It's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall.

PROGRESSIVES ASK TO FILE MANDAMUS ON SECRETARY GRAVES

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Attorney Thomas H. Clark, representing the Progressive state committee, today filed a motion in the supreme court for permission to file a mandamus suit against Secretary of State Graves, compelling him to allow candidates' names to appear on the ballot at the fall election, under more than one party designation. The six justices of the court will hear oral arguments on the motion at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

National sales-slip printers furnish the only system that stops mistakes and losses and gives positive protection on all transactions where sales-slips are used.

They are used to safeguard sales by giving the proprietors printed and added records which are unchangeable.

You should have unchangeable records in order to be sure that you get all your profits.

The "Get a Receipt" plan forces employees to make a correct record of every transaction that takes place in your store.

Have it explained to you.

A National will watch your business while you are away and give you a controlling total of all business done.

It keeps track of details that no human brain can retain.

Investigation will cost you nothing.

Multiple-counter, multiple-drawer Nationals tell how much and what kind of business each employee does.

If a mistake is made the register shows who made it.

They create friendly rivalry between employees, which increases your trade and your profits.

TABERNACLE

Stand by your pastors, friends; play them up, praise them up and pay them up, not for my sake but the sake of the world.

Going to the Dogs.

The evangelist then reiterated his statement that he didn't intend to try to please everybody during the Newark campaign, but would try to satisfy the Lord. "There are some people who think I ought to, say benedictions at my services," added the speaker. "That's just the reason I don't have them. Too many people think a meeting has to be according to a regular program, or things will go to the bow-wow. I like to keep the people guessing what is going to happen next, or at least keep some of them asking. As long as the people are being blessed and souls are being saved, don't criticize how things are being done."

Dr. Lyon then pleaded for confidence in his leadership. "For the glory of God and the salvation of souls put aside your criticism. How many people want to sit around on the square and cuss the evangelists. They holler about the 'big barn' and say that anybody that came here would get a cold and 'ammonia' on the lungs."

They Can't Stop It.

"They're like George Stevenson and his first locomotive. His old mother kept telling him, 'George, you can't start it,' but when the engine did work, the old lady ran along beside it, crying 'George, you can't stop it.' Many of these knockers who have been saying that we couldn't start a revival in Newark will be telling pretty soon that 'you can't stop it,' he added. "Roll aside your stone of criticism."

"Roll away the stone of envy, bitterness, malice, and jealousy. I don't know of anything in the church that causes as much trouble as this. If you have any bitterness in your church, God cannot bless you. If nothing else was done for two weeks but settle up every church quarrel, and get everyone in the church to live as he ought to live, it would mean the greatest ingathering of souls that Ohio ever saw. Have you done what you could to make things right?"

Why Not K. S.

"No church can be blessed as long as two members of that church don't speak to one another."

"Then there are hindrances in individual life," Dr. Lyon argued. "Often prejudice and pride, stubbornness, or some bad habit, some evil practice."

Frequently it is avarice. This lust for gold caused a well known church member of Newark a few days ago to rent his property for a house of ill-fame, simply because he could get a little more money out of it. That kind of a person has to quit his meanness or if there is a hell for anybody he is going to get there—and I know who he is.

"Tolstoi says that capitalism will do anything for labor but get off its back. Many people will do anything but give up their sins. God doesn't say, 'Make your light shine,' he says, 'Let your light shine.'"

"There is as much opportunity to save souls in Newark in 1912 as in any time in the history of the world, and as soon as we get the conditions right, God is going to bless the people and save the lost souls."

There's Sin Hid Somewhere

Drawing his moral from the story of a load that squatted in a water main, refusing to let the water pass through, Dr. Lyon said, "You wonder why you are neglectful of family prayer and God's word, why you have so little interest in the saving of others, why you have lost your zeal and the power that you once had. It's because there is some sin in your life that is choking the channel and your life is becoming spiritually barren and dead."

"The greatest blight on Christianity is not Evidyism or Doweyism or Spiritualism. It is indifference. It's like the minister who, at a funeral service, said, 'this corpse has been a member of the church for the last twenty years.' Some of you haven't done a lick of work, you've been elders that didn't elder and stewards that didn't stew."

"If a business man in Newark would not do as much for his business as the average church member does for Christ, he would be bankrupt inside of sixty days. How all you people of Newark can possibly sit down in the midst of all the vice, just as if nothing was happening, is more than I can comprehend."

No Room in Hell.

"I have a great deal more respect for the man in the Civil war who fought for the south than I have for the copperheads that would not go out for one side or the other. These are the people the devil would turn out of hell."

Dr. Lyon related the death of a youth in one of the southern rivers infested with alligators, and pictured the horror of the boy's father in finding nothing left of his son but a handful of bones. "You say this is horrible," he concluded. "Friends, vastly more horrible things are being enacted right here in Newark every day and you know it. Lives are being swallowed up by the great monster of vice and appetite. My God, can it be that the large share of professing Christians have been sitting down in indifference, much more interested in making money, in pleasure, in the mere frivolities of society, than in the saving of the lost."

The Place of Resurrection.

"The crisis is upon Newark. God wants, right here on this spot, where they used to bury the dead, to make it a place where the spiritually dead will be raised to life."

The preacher's message had visibly affected the audience. His plea that those who wished to take a stand for Christ anew should lift their hands came as a great surprise, but it was only a very few seconds before hands began to go up in all parts of the house. The professing Christians who had felt the force of the sermon willingly came to the front if the tabernacle where after Dr. Lyon's closing prayer they re-dedicated their lives to the service of the Master, threw off the shackles of indifference and removed themselves from the class that is popularly known as "backsliders."

The song service immediately before the evening sermon was a very successful one, in spite of the fact that the audience was not as large as usual. Prof. Ralph E. Mitchell's chorus choir gets better every night, while the children's choruses are indeed a splendid inspiration for the man or woman who is weary after his day of hard work. The special musical offering for the evening was a duet by Prof. Mitchell and Mrs. Grace Powell, the 'Lyons party's' soloist, telling the simple message of the "Love that Can Never Fail."

The report of the finance committee shows that considerable improvement is to be found in the collections. Dr. Lyon's persistent appeals for more vigorous financial aid, in order that local expenses may be properly and promptly met, have been effective, and the committee will be able to close the campaign with a clean slate. Dr. Lyon's pertinent appeal last night was voiced in the statement that "some people give according to their means; others give according to their meanness."

Special Meetings Sunday

Meetings of vital importance to be held during the coming week are receiving the special attention of Judge Holloway in his announcements. Chief among these is the great mass meeting in the tabernacle on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when every boy and girl under the age of sixteen years will be asked to hear Dr. Lyon's sermon for young people. One little fellow who didn't expect to attend because his mother has been ill managed to find a real friend in the "Judge" yesterday and the mother will be given proper attention while the boy is brought into touch with the great truths of life.

On Sunday afternoon two special meetings are to be held. One will be for men only and held in the Lyon tabernacle. This will be conducted by Dr. Lyon and Judge Holloway, with special music by Prof. Mitchell. The other is to be held at the First Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Allison, and will be for women only. Mrs. Powell will sing at this meeting.

Afternoon Service.

Nearly a thousand persons attended the afternoon meeting at the tabernacle yesterday, when Dr. Lyon discussed, "The Method of Jesus in Soul Winning." The theme being taken from Christ's conversation with the woman of Samaria. The sermon followed an interesting song service, lasting nearly half an hour and directed by Prof. Mitchell. Mrs. Grace Powell, whose star of popularity is still high above the horizon, rendered a splendid solo, "Was That Somebody You?" in a touching manner, bringing the sense of prevalent failure in lives clearly before her audience.

"The actions of Christ were often super-natural, but never contra-natural," commenced the speaker, in discussing Christ's reason for going through Samaria on his way from Jerusalem to Galilee, in spite of the animosity existing between the Jews and the Samaritans. "Jesus always did the direct thing, the simple thing, and this is one of the greatest methods that we can use in winning souls today."

Have to Go Through Sorrow.

"Greatness is simplicity. It is only the sham that needs coating; you don't have to gild gold. A life that is real is the simple life. Christ's action showed that he was devoid of prejudice. The plain path of duty directed Him that way. Let us make our applications, there is a work that God has for you and me, some Samaria of duty, some Samaria of difficulty that we ought to go through. We do not want to it, but if we follow Jesus we will have to go through the Samaria of suffering and sorrow. My experience has been that those that get nearest to God are those that suffer the most."

"Jesus was out at the well at the sixth hour—noon. He was weary, hungry and thirsty. This shows the humanity of Jesus. There has been too much of a tendency to emphasize the godliness of God. Universalism, Unitarianism, Calvinism all emphasized phases of Christian life. They have done their duty and are now dead, and men who are living in them are living with the bats in the belfry."

"I hope the day will come when we have something besides a Unitarian in the presidential chair. I am not talking politics, but I am talking religion. We want a better example to set before our children."

"The woman of Samaria came along and Jesus said to her, 'Give me something to drink.' You have to get next to people to help them, and by Jesus getting next to the woman he was under obligations to her and he was able to help her."

"The woman was surprised that a Jew should ask a Samaritan for water. If Jesus was merely a Jew he would not have done so. Let us get away from the castes and classes of this country and live on the great plane of Christianity, where all men are equal."

"Jesus awakened the element of curiosity."

"This was not simply because he was talking to a woman," added Dr. Lyon, provoking the laughter of his audience. "He spoke of living water, and aroused her curiosity, one of the greatest pedagogical principles."

Feed Sheep, Not Giraffes.

And then there is shown another element in pedagogy—the transfer from the simple to the complex and from the concrete to the abstract. "Jesus used the material illustration because he wanted to teach the woman something she didn't understand."

"I often wonder where so many preachers get their reputation for depth," added the speaker. "They are as clear as mud. Yet I have heard some people go away from a discourse and say, 'wasn't that scholarly.' It was simply abstruse. The man who praised it simply became particeps criminis in creating the preacher's reputation for depth and profundity."

"Jesus said, 'Peter, feed my sheep.' He didn't say, 'Peter, feed my giraffes.'"

Dr. Lyon told of an old lady who said that the common people couldn't understand what Christian Science meant. "That's where it branches away from Christianity. Jesus spoke to everyone and the common people heard him gladly. Whenever the common people get away from any movement, that movement is doomed. Every movement that was ever made for the uplift of society has come from the lower classes and worked upwards. Keep close to the common people in the community and the church; they are the people who have common sense."

Dr. Lyon then continued his analysis of Jesus' methods, showing that the woman tried to find common ground on which to prepare for a discussion by referring to their "father Jacob." She told of his giving the well to the Samaritans, "and drank thereof, his children and his cattle."

Living Like Cattle.

"That's where the woman made her mistake," commented the speaker. "Give the devil rope enough and he'll hang himself. She should have stopped before she said 'cattle.' My friend, if you can't do anything on a higher plane than cattle, you don't amount to much."

The speaker's next point was in the distinction between reformation and regeneration. A man may turn over a new leaf but still not be regenerated. Reform is from the outside and regeneration from the heart. A cistern may have more water in it than the spring, but when you get the water out of the cistern, that's all there is to it. The water of the spring is connected with its source in the everlasting hills.

"We hear too much about vice and not enough about sin; too much about reformation and not enough about regeneration."

"The trouble with the woman was that she didn't want to change her life," said Dr. Lyon. "A man told me that he came to the tabernacle for one or two nights but wasn't coming back again because he didn't sleep so well. He wanted to go on with his sins, you see."

"She became sarcastic. She thought Christ was one of those water lizards that go around with a little bent stick and tell where water is to be found. She began to ridicule Christ's work, and that's what thousands in Newark are doing today, and for the very same reason that this woman did."

"Now see how Jesus called her bluff," the speaker added. "He told her to get her husband and she was forced to reply that she had none, although she had had five husbands—and God knew it."

"What this town needs is to have the shell of ridicule broken and cracked."

No Need For Tariff.

The speaker then emphasized the utter kindness used by the Master in his work. "She wanted to discuss their old theological differences. She wanted to get up an argument just as some politicians have tariff problems as a sort of a straw man to fight over and keep differences in the eyes of the people. The churches have denominations for this reason, just because if they got together they might lick the

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and imperfection of the blood and nervous strength is the taking of an effective glycolic extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Miss W. Dore, of New Brunswick, N. J. "I had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months and was waiting for a life sentence. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my own cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 125 pounds."

OF PRIZES GIVEN AT MOOSE CARNIVAL ANNOUNCED WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Contests Were Spirited and Friends of Competitors Busy During the Last Day.

The Moose Carnival, where the J. Frank Hatch Allied Shows are holding forth was a popular spot last night. The glare of bands the song of the merry-go-round, and the ceaseless chatter of the throng of merry makers, together with the shifting hundreds, who crowded the street produced a carnival spirit that proved most contagious, and every concession drew its full share of patronage.

The main feature of the evening was the announcement of the prize winners in the various popularity contests which have been conducted under the auspices of the local Moose. When the votes had all been counted, the following results were announced:

Young Ladies' Contest.
First prize—Diamond ring, Miss Lola Reator, 1351 votes.
Second prize—Diamond ring, Miss May Conley, 1150 votes.
Little Girls' Doll Contest.
First prize—Margaret McGonagle, 1485 votes.
Second prize—Elizabeth K. Miller, 1066 votes.
Third prize—Margaret Stouffer, 1013 votes.

Boys' Bicycle Contest.
First prize—Bicycle, James Baruxes, 325 votes.
Second prize—Boys' watch, Carl Green, 1355 votes.

Pretty Baby Contest.
First prize—Diamond ring, Willard Gansert, 235 votes.
Second prize—Chip diamond ring, Willard Vaughn, 1393 votes.

Homely Man Contest.
Jacob Schrader swept the field of all opponents, and won the prize, a white sapphire ring, by rolling up a majority of 1505 votes.

ODDS ARE TURNING

AGAINST ROOSEVELT

New York, October 3.—Election betting looked up a bit yesterday in Gotham. This is a resumption after a lapse of several weeks. They took a turn against Roosevelt, and wagers were recorded at 4 to 1 against the Progressive candidate.

Taft's chances, as reflected in the betting, moved up correspondingly, so that he is now placed second, with Wilson leading. Odds are 3 to 1 against Taft, and 2 to 1 in favor of Wilson.

Brokers added that for weeks they had had money to bet at 2 to 1 on Wilson, but that there had been few takers.

One of the interesting side bets offered on the curb is even money Roosevelt will get more votes than Taft.

Another bet was offered of 3 to 1 that Wilson would get more votes than Roosevelt and Taft combined.

One broker offered to risk 3 to 1 that Wilson would beat Taft. That offer, like most of the others, however, received no takers.

Mr. and Mrs. Winegardner of Angaz county, visited friends in town the latter part of last week.

The Pataskala and Johnstown street fairs were well represented with visitors from Alexandria and vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Beaumont and daughter Sarah of Newark spent Saturday with friends in town.

Rev. E. S. Rothrock of Cleveland, state superintendent of Home Missions of the Congregational churches, filled the pulpit in the Congregational Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Clarice Carroll entertained the King's Daughters club at her home, south of town, Tuesday, October 1st. Light refreshments were served.

Rev. K. B. Alexander is attending the M. E. Conference held in Columbus this week. Rev. Mr. Alexander has been with us two years and the M. E. church members and citizens are in hopes he may be returned to this pastorate another year. Mrs. Alexander and children are spending the week in Westerville.

A. E. Wiggins of Indiana delivered his lecture on "Forty Kinds of Fools" in the Auditorium Tuesday night, October 1st, to an appreciative audience. This is the first number on this year's lecture course. Next number will be the "Kafir Boys Choir." November 7.

HEBRON

The Lyon meetings and Licking county fair at Newark are taking a large number of people from our village this week; as a result Hebron is pretty dull now.

B. T. Brush and wife will spend the latter part of the week with their relatives at Coshocton.

Mrs. Mary White was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Silas White at Pataskala last week.

Mrs. Hulda Harter, Miss Ruth Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harter of Newark were here Monday and disposed of Mrs. Harter's household goods at public sale.

Mr. Iden moved his family to Columbus last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird Rook of Mt. Vernon are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Carlisle.

T. H. Duffill is wearing a broad smile. He is grandpa. A 10-lb. boy was born to Dr. and Mrs. Ray Spurgeon Sunday morning at their home at Bremen, Ohio.

The funeral services of Mr. Stephen Gill, which was held at the home of his nephew, Mr. Ralph Adams, north of town, was largely attended. Miss Alice Adams, who is attending school at Delaware, was in attendance at the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer will occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. Iden on West Main street.

Mrs. Bessie Robinson spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, at Croton.

Mrs. Sarah Hutzell and Mrs. Slocumb were guests of Mrs. Rockey at Pataskala during the street fair.

Mrs. F. M. Good and son Carlton of Baltimore spent several days with Mayor T. M. White and wife and Mrs. James Fugh at Kirkersville.

Miss Bell resigned her position at the Cash Store and has returned to her home at Zanesville.

Mrs. Emma Coyle is clerking at the Cash Store.

Mrs. Mary White moved into her new home on East Main street Tuesday.

Mrs. Myrtle Oldaker and son Trafford are visiting friends at Zanesville.

Mrs. Rebecca Arnold, the venerable grandmother of Mr. Calvin Arnold, who is now almost 92 years old, came over from Fredonia, accompanied by Miss Hathe Arnold of Newark, to spend a few weeks at the Arnold home on Mount street.

Mrs. Hanson Carlisle, who has resided on the east side of the village all her life, but for the past 25 years has never been across the raging canal or "untown," broke the record Monday by attending a sale at Mrs. Hulda Harter's home on Basin street.

Mrs. Carlisle is in good health, but she enjoys staying at home with her husband and family.

Today We Are Going To Talk About The New Plush And Pile Fabric Coats

Prettier Styles and Lower Prices Than Ever Before

Read The Reason Why It Lets The Whole Secret Out

Many months ago, just after the Fall Styles for this season were designed, Plush and Pile Fabric coats took a most decided drop in price—in fact, lower than they had ever been before. Many merchants would not buy them, as they thought they would not be worn much this season, but we took a chance and laid in large supplies at rock bottom prices. You know how good they are now—one of the most popular garments of the season, and prices have advanced over 30 per cent. The manufacturers' advance means that you must pay the retailer a higher price—but not so here. Once again we are going to show our ability to under-sell and the prices we quote here today fully demonstrate that fact. All first quality garments guaranteed by us and the makers. We invite your earliest inspection, as later on, when we duplicate, prices are bound to be higher. The largest assortments and lowest prices await you here. Come tomorrow.

Ladies Caraculs $6.75 These garments are tailored from black striped Caracul, with wide lapels and roll collar. Nicely lined and finished throughout. Sizes from 14 to 44. If we were to buy this garment at the present time we would be compelled to pay $10.00 for it, but in keeping with our policy of giving our customers the best for the money, we place them on sale tomorrow morning at each $6.75	GENUINE SEALETTE PLUSH COATS, SATIN LINED $30 Did you ever read of such values before? We think not, for it's the greatest thing we ever saw in all our years of store keeping. Made from genuine Sealette Plush that has that rich, lustrous color that is only found in the best qualities of genuine plush. These coats are tailored in the most approved fall and winter styles, buttoning with three frogs. Buttons are of plush, reinforced on the inside. Linings of the best guaranteed satin and come in several shades. Ruffled pocket on the inside. Viewed with a critic's eye, these garments stand forth as productions of master tailors. We doubt if you can duplicate them at $27.50. On sale tomorrow at—each $20.00	Pretty Plushes $14.75 Not made from the dead looking plush that generally sells at $15.00, but from real Sealette that marks the garment of quality. These coats are tailored in exact reproduction of the $20.00 styles, except in a few minor details, such as linings, etc., and the plush is not quite so good a quality. Nevertheless it is worth every cent of $20.00. Tomorrow at—each $14.75
--	---	---

SATIN LINED "SALTEX" COATS $12.00 You know what "Saltex Fur" is—the very finest quality of Caracul that has that exceptionally black appearance. These garments are simply wonderful at the price. Lined throughout with guaranteed satin in such shades as tan, gold, blue, rose and black. You would not hesitate to pay $17.50 for a coat of this caliber, but we are going to save you $5.50 by placing them on sale at—each $12.00	CRUSHED CARACULS $8.50 You might gather from the price that these coats were along the cheap order, but not so. They are the very best crushed caracul coats on the market. Lined with a heavy black satin that wears like iron and looks like satin. If you have shopped around you no doubt saw them priced at $12.50, as one customer told us. All sizes tomorrow at the exceptionally low price of $8.50

Some Exclusive Novelty Styles in Plushes, Persian Lamb, Black Boucle, and Astrachans That Will Prove Attractive to the Woman Who Wants Something Distinctive and Different

NOVELTY PLUSH $32.50 This garment has won the admiration of all who have seen it. Made from the finest quality of plush, with lapels, collar and deep cuffs of Persian lamb. Finished off at bottom with Persian lamb about 18 inches deep. Buttons with large frog and two buttons of plush with silk cord and tassels. Lined with guaranteed satin. A revelation of the designer's art and priced at $32.50	BLACK ASTRACHAN $30.00 These models are certainly beauties, being so much in vogue in the larger cities. They come in severely tailored styles and button with a large frog, with cord and tassels. It is impossible to describe their numerous charms—you simply must see them. To the woman who wants a black coat and something entirely new, we could recommend this garment. Two styles at $30.00 and $35.00	PERSIAN LAMB $35.00 Of course, it's not the real Persian lamb, but such an exact copy that detection is nearly impossible. It's rich, lustrous fur is beautiful to look upon. Made with shawl collar and rolling lapels. Chamomile-lined pocket on inside, ruffled with satin at top. The entire garment is lined with Skinner's satin. Buttons with frog and tassels. Priced at a very reasonable figure $35.00

ATTORNEY GENERAL GAVE OPINION ON ELECTION POINTS

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Although an amendment adopted by the people of the state at the special constitutional election held Sept. 2, abolishes the state board of public works, candidates for that office must be voted on at the November election, according to an opinion given today by Attorney General Hogan. All election proceedings must be conducted under the old constitution until Jan. 1, said Mr. Hogan. The attorney general also held that the county sheriffs must issue a proclamation for the election of members of the board of public works, in an opinion given to Sheriff Carroll of Richland county.

The polls on election day in the cities where registration is required will be open from 5:30 to 8:30, central time, according to an opinion of Attorney General Hogan today. In cities where registration is not necessary, the polls will be open from 5:30 to 6.

Saved By His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall.

PROGRESSIVES ASK TO FILE MANDAMUS ON SECRETARY GRAVES

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Attorney Thomas H. Clark, representing the Progressive state committee, today filed a motion in the supreme court for permission to file a mandamus suit against Secretary of State Graves, compelling him to allow candidates' names to appear on the ballot at the fall election, under more than one party designation. The six justices of the court will hear oral arguments on the motion at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Stand by your pastors, friends; play them up, praise them up and pay them up, not for my sake but the sake of the world.

Going to the Dogs.

The evangelist then reiterated his statement that he didn't intend to try to please everybody during the Newark campaign, but would try to satisfy the Lord. "There are some people who think I ought to say benedictions at my services," added the speaker. "That's just the reason I don't have them. Too many people think a meeting has to be according to a regular program, or things will go to the dogs. I like to keep the people guessing what is going to happen next, or at least keep some of them asking. As long as the people are being blessed and souls are being saved, don't criticize how things are being done."

Dr. Lyon then pleaded for confidence in his leadership. "For the glory of God and the salvation of souls put aside your criticism. How many people want to sit around on the square and cuss the evangelists. They holler about the 'big barn' and say that anybody that came here would get a cold and 'ammonia' on the lungs."

They Can't Stop It.

"They're like George Stevenson and his first locomotive. His old mother kept telling him, 'George, you can't start it,' but when the engine did work, the old lady ran along beside it, crying 'George, you can't stop it.' Many of these knockers who have been saying that we couldn't start a revival in Newark will be telling pretty soon that 'you can't stop it,' he added. "Roll aside your stone of criticism."

"Roll away the stone of envy, bitterness, malice, and jealousy. I don't know of anything in the church that causes as much trouble as this. If you have any bitterness in your church, God cannot bless you. If nothing else was done for two weeks but settle up every church quarrel, and get everyone in the church to live as he ought to live, it would mean the greatest gathering of souls that Ohio ever saw. Have you done what you could to make things right?"

Why Not K. S.

"No church can be blessed as long as two members of that church don't speak to one another."

"Then there are hindrances in individual life," Dr. Lyon argued. "Often prejudice and pride, stubbornness, or some bad habit, some evil practice."

Frequently it is avarice. This lust for gold caused a well known church member of Newark a few days ago to rent his property for a house of ill-fame, simply because he could get a little more money out of it. That kind of a person has to quit his meanness or if there is a hell for anybody he is going to get there—and I know who he is.

"Tolstoi says that capitalism will do anything for labor but get off its back. Many people will do anything but give up their sins. God doesn't say, 'Make your light shine,' he says, 'Let your light shine.'"

"There is as much opportunity to save souls in Newark in 1912 as in any time in the history of the world, and as soon as we get the conditions right, God is going to bless the people and save the lost souls."

There's Sin Hid Somewhere

Drawing his moral from the story of a load that squatted in a water main, refusing to let the water pass through, Dr. Lyon said, "You wonder why you are neglectful of family prayer and God's word, why you have so little interest in the saving of others, why you have lost your zeal and the power that you once had. It's because there is some sin in your life that is choking the channel and your life is becoming spiritually barren and dead."

"The greatest blight on Christianity is not Evidyism or Doweyism or Spiritualism. It is indifference. It's like the minister who, at a funeral service, said, 'this corpse has been a member of the church for the last twenty years.' Some of you haven't done a lick of work, you've been elders that didn't elder and stewards that didn't stew."

"If a business man in Newark would not do as much for his business as the average church member does for Christ, he would be bankrupt inside of sixty days. How all you people of Newark can possibly sit down in the midst of all the vice, just as if nothing was happening, is more than I can comprehend."

No Room in Hell.

"I have a great deal more respect for the man in the Civil war who fought for the south than I have for the copperheads that would not go out for one side or the other. These are the people the devil would turn out of hell."

Dr. Lyon related the death of a youth in one of the southern rivers infested with alligators, and pictured the horror of the boy's father in finding nothing left of his son but a handful of bones. "You say this is horrible," he concluded. "Friends, vastly more horrible things are being enacted right here in Newark every day and you know it. Lives are being swallowed up by the great monster of vice and appetite. My God, can it be that the large share of professing Christians have been sitting down in indifference, much more interested in making money, in pleasure, in the mere frivolities of society, than in the saving of the lost.

The Place of Resurrection.

"The crisis is upon Newark. God wants, right here on this spot, where they used to bury the dead, to make it a place where the spiritually dead will be raised to life."

The preacher's message had visibly affected the audience. His plea that those who wished to take a stand for Christ anew should lift their hands came as a great surprise, but it was only a very few seconds before hands began to go up in all parts of the house. The professing Christians who had felt the force of the sermon willingly came to the front if the tabernacle where after Dr. Lyon's closing prayer they re-dedicated their lives to the service of the Master, throw off the shackles of indifferents and moved themselves from the class that is popularly known as "backsliders."

The song service immediately before the evening sermon was a very successful one, in spite of the fact that the audience was not as large as usual. Prof. Ralph E. Mitchell's choir gets better every night, while the children's choruses are indeed a splendid inspiration for the man or woman who is weary after his day of hard work. The special musical offering for the evening was a duet by Prof. Mitchell and Mrs. Grace Powell, the Lyon party's soloist, telling the simple message of the "Love that Can Never Fail."

The report of the finance committee shows that considerable improvement is to be found in the collections. Dr. Lyon's persistent appeals for more vigorous financial aid, in order that local expenses may be properly and promptly met, have been effective, and the committee will be able to close the campaign with a clean slate. Dr. Lyon's pertinent appeal last night was voiced in the statement that "some people give according to their means; others give according to their meanness."

Special Meetings Sunday

Meetings of vital importance to be held during the coming week are receiving the special attention of Judge Holloway in his announcements. Chief among these is the great mass meeting in the tabernacle on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when every boy and girl under the age of sixteen years will be asked to hear Dr. Lyon's sermon for young people. One little fellow who didn't expect to attend because his mother has been ill managed to find a real friend in the "Judge" yesterday and the mother will be given proper attention while the boy is brought into touch with the great truths of life.

On Sunday afternoon two special meetings are to be held. One will be for men only and held in the Lyon tabernacle. This will be conducted by Dr. Lyon and Judge Holloway, with special music by Prof. Mitchell. The other is to be held at the First Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Allison, and will be for women only. Mrs. Powell will sing at this meeting.

Afternoon Service.

Nearly a thousand persons attended the afternoon meeting at the tabernacle yesterday, when Dr. Lyon discussed, "The Method of Jesus in Soul Winning," the theme being taken from Christ's conversation with the woman of Samaria. The sermon followed an interesting song service, lasting nearly half an hour and directed by Prof. Mitchell. Mrs. Grace Powell, whose star of popularity is still high above the horizon, rendered a splendid solo, "Was That Somebody You?" in a touching manner, bringing the sense of prevalent failure in lives clearly before her audience.

"The actions of Christ were often super-natural, but never contra-natural," commenced the speaker, in discussing Christ's reason for going through Samaria on his way from Jerusalem to Galilee, in spite of the animosity existing between the Jews and the Samaritans. "Jesus always did the direct thing, the simple thing, and this is one of the greatest methods that we can use in winning souls today."

Have to Go Through Sorrow.

"Greatness is simplicity. It is only the sham that needs coating; you don't have to gild gold. A life that is real is the simple life. Christ's action showed that he was devoid of prejudice. The plain path of duty directed Him that way. Let us make our applications, there is a work that God has for you and me, some Samaria of duty, some Samaria of difficulty that we ought to go through. We do not want to do it, but if we follow Jesus we will have to go through the Samaria of suffering and sorrow. My experience has been that those that get nearest to God are those that suffer the most."

"Jesus was out at the well at the sixth hour—noon. He was weary, hungry and thirsty. This shows the humanity of Jesus. There has been too much of a tendency to emphasize the godliness of God. Universalism, Unitarianism, Calvinism all emphasized phases of Christian life. They have done their duty and are now dead, and men who are living in them are living with the bats in the belfry."

"I hope the day will come when we have something besides a Unitarian in the presidential chair. I am not talking politics, but I am talking religion. We want a better example to set before our children."

"The woman of Samaria came along and Jesus said to her, 'Give me something to drink.' You have to get next to people to help them, and by Jesus getting next to the woman he was under obligation to her and he was able to help her."

"The woman was surprised that a Jew should ask a Samaritan for water. If Jesus was merely a Jew he would not have done so. Let us get away from the castes and classes of this country and live on the great plane of Christianity, where all men are equal."

"Jesus awakened the element of curiosity."

"This was not simply because he was talking to a woman," added Dr. Lyon, provoking the laughter of his audience. "He spoke of living water, and aroused her curiosity, one of the greatest pedagogical principles."

Feed Sheep, Not Giraffes.

And then there is shown another element in pedagogy—the transfer from the simple to the complex and from the concrete to the abstract. "Jesus used the material illustration because he wanted to teach the woman something she didn't understand."

"I often wonder where so many preachers get their reputation for depth," added the speaker. "They are as clear as mud. Yet I have heard some people go away from a discourse and say, 'wasn't that scholarly.' It was simply abstruse. The man who praised it simply became a participant in creating the preacher's reputation for depth and profundity."

"Jesus said, 'Peter, feed my sheep.' He didn't say, 'Peter, feed my giraffes.'"

Dr. Lyon told of an old lady who said that the common people couldn't understand what Christian Science meant. "That's where it branches away from Christianity. Jesus spoke to everyone and the common people heard him gladly. Whenever the common people get away from any movement, that movement is doomed. Every movement that was ever made for the uplift of society has come from the lower classes and worked upwards. Keep close to the common people in the community and the church; they are the people who have common sense."

Dr. Lyon then continued his analysis of Jesus' methods, showing that the woman tried to find common ground on which to prepare for a discussion by referring to their "father Jacob." She told of his giving the well to the Samaritans, "and drank thereof, his children and his cattle."

Living Like Cattle.

"That's where the woman made her mistake," commented the speaker. "Give the devil rope enough and he'll hang himself. She should have stopped before she said 'cattle.' My friend, if you can't do anything on a higher plane than cattle, you don't amount to much."

The speaker's next point was in the distinction between reformation and regeneration. A man may turn over a new leaf but still not be regenerated. Reform is from the outside and regeneration from the heart. A cistern may have more water in it than the spring, but when you get the water out of the cistern, that's all there is to it. The water of the spring is connected with its source in the everlasting hills.

"We hear too much about vice and not enough about sin; too much about reformation and not enough about regeneration."

"The trouble with the woman was that she didn't want to change her life," said Dr. Lyon. "A man told me that he came to the tabernacle for one or two nights but wasn't coming back again because he didn't sleep so well. He wanted to go on with his sins, you see."

"She became sarcastic. She thought Christ was one of those water lizards that go around with a little bent stick and tell where water is to be found. She began to ridicule Christ's work, and that's what thousands in Newark are doing today, and for the very same reason that the woman did."

"Now see how Jesus called her bluff," the speaker added. "He told her to get her husband, and she was forced to reply that she had none, although she had had five husbands—and God knew it."

"What this town needs is to have the shell of ridicule broken and cracked."

No Need For Tariff.

The speaker then emphasized the utter kindness used by the Master in his work. "She wanted to discuss their old theological differences. She wanted to get up an argument just as some politicians have tariff problems as a sort of a straw man to fight over and keep differences in the eyes of the people. The churches have denominations for this season, just because if they got together they might lick the devil, and a lot of fellows would lose their jobs."

"The woman wanted to talk about anything but her sin. Jesus method was simple and plain, but he would not be led off on a side track. Do not ask about what church you should join. Just give yourself up to Jesus Christ. Do not let anybody draw you away from that question. 'What are you going to do with Jesus, that is called Christ?' The sin is in rejecting Him."

"She wanted to procrastinate, to put off accepting Christ. How many of you people want to do that? He emphasized the urgency of the affair. He brought the issue to her directly."

The evangelist continued his analysis by referring to the coming of the disciples with food for Christ. "He had been so absorbed in His personal work that He forgot everything else," he commented. "He had not thought about eating. And that's the way you will feel if you do your duty and try to win souls for Christ. Put energy into your work as Jesus did, and God is going to make you a great power in His work."

Bible Class Interest Large.

The Bible Study class conducted by Mrs. Allison proved very attractive and nearly three hundred have participated in this special phase of the revival work. Mrs. Allison has made a close study of the Bible and uses her knowledge as a means of directing her class to the best passages available for personal workers. The class is doing very efficient work, and with their renewed vigor and pledges of greater Christian activity should be powerful factors in bringing other Newark souls to a realization of their sins. The Bible Study division meets every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and Mrs. Allison would be glad to meet any prospective workers at that hour.

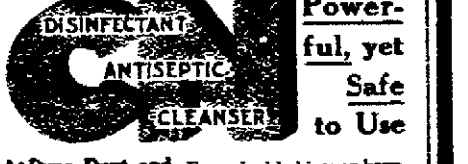

PRAYER MEETINGS.

In spite of other attractions and distractions the interest in and attendance at the neighborhood prayer meetings grow apace. There was a total attendance of 466 reported for the meetings Wednesday morning. Several meetings were not reported. As far as the chairman has learned, the largest attendance was in District 27, at the home of Mrs. Homer Allison, in Moulton street. They report 24 present. There were 22 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Fry, in Ninth street, in District 31, Division A. All division leaders are urged to report the places of meeting for next week not later than Sunday evening. Drop the card in the box at the tabernacle.

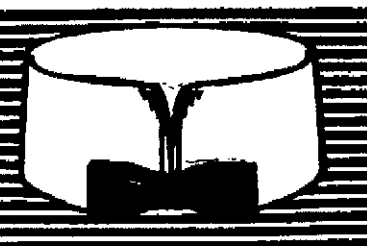

The following meetings will be held in the churches Friday morning at 9 o'clock: East Main St. M. E. church, Rev. G. W. Tyler, leader; North Newark C. U. church, Rev. T. H. Warner, leader; Woodside Presbyterian church, Rev. J. A. Bennett, leader; Central Church of Christ, Rev. P. E. Holloway, leader; Tenth St. U. B. church, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Powell, leaders; West Main St. M. E. church, Rev. C. C. Roof, leader; South Side Chapel, Fred Hazen, leader.

GENTLY CLEANS YOUR LIVER AND TEN YARDS OF BOWELS

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" cleanses the stomach, liver and bowels of sour bile, gases, decaying food and clogged-up waste without gripe or nausea.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic—not as an irritant. Its action is natural and gentle—no gripping. It is delicious—no dreading. It is positive and prompt—no waiting.

If your stomach is sour and filled with bile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half sick, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, and in the morning all constipated waste, sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system, gently but thoroughly—no gripping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something severe, like castor oil, salts or cathartics, that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of the gentle and natural—the days of Syrup of Figs. This way you are not drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics cannot cause injury. Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" and look for the name, California Fig Syrup Company on the label. This is the genuine—old reliable. Any other so called Fig Syrup is an imitation often meant to deceive you. Refuse such with contempt.

AVIATOR FREEMAN THE GREAT ATTRACTION AT COUNTY FAIR GROUNDS

The attendance reports of the county fair for yesterday show that over 4300 persons paid admissions at the gate, an increase of over 3500 above the attendance figures for the Wednesday crowd at the 1911 fair. The crowd was simply immense, flooding the grounds from an early hour in the afternoon until quite late at night, and Secretary J. D. Farmer is authority for the statement that the real attendance for noon Mr. Freeman consented to make another flight: of about ten minutes, passing over the fair grounds about 1400 feet above the ground. He swerved and dipped perilously at times, but had perfect control of his machine and in spite of his taking a rather dangerous flight over some trees lining the grounds, returning safely to the hangar, his face wearing his customary smile.

Arrangements had been made by the Advocate to send up a special representative as the first passenger to be taken into clouds by Aviator Freeman. This flight, one of the most beautiful of the entire series, was taken shortly after 5.30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Morrison Maginness, who is visiting at the home of her parents, 98 South Third street, the day conservatively estimated, is in the neighborhood of 7000 persons. This variation in the figures reported is due to the fact that hundreds of privilege tickets, admitting exhibitors and their families, were disposed of before yesterday and used for admission to the grounds yesterday, swelling the crowd by at least 2500.

The races proved the medium for attracting a large portion of the crowd as it will this afternoon. The racing schedules have never had more promising entries than this year, some of the best horses in the central circuits appearing on the local track, with a few entries from New York, Kentucky, and Indiana.

The aviation grounds, on the Wehrle field adjoining the fair ground, was visited by thousands during the day and everywhere the splendid work of Archie Freeman in his Wright biplane was praised. The new engine, secured from Dayton early yesterday morning, was put in to operation shortly after noon yesterday, when Mr. Freeman made a brief flight, trying a sensational dip and bringing his machine to a stand still only a few rods from where it had left the hangar.

The news of this flight quickly spread to all parts of the city and those who were able to catch a car to the fair did so. Shortly after three o'clock Mr. Freeman made another flight, witnessed by fully five thousand persons. He ascended about 1500 feet, whirled rapidly over the fair ground, climbed up still higher, then circled back to the hangar. So startling were his feats with the machine at times, that even Mrs. Freeman, who accompanies her husband on all his travels, gasped at her husband's daring. Later in the afternoon Mr. Freeman consented to make another flight: of about ten minutes, passing over the fair grounds about 1400 feet above the ground. He swerved and dipped perilously at times, but had perfect control of his machine and in spite of his taking a rather dangerous flight over some trees lining the grounds, returning safely to the hangar, his face wearing his customary smile.

The Races.

The speed program at the county fair Wednesday afternoon was an interesting feature of the week's entertainment. Three races were disposed of without an accident and there were some pretty contests for places in the money. While all the events were won in straight heats, the summaries really fail to indicate how close the finish was in the various heats.

Probably the biggest field of horses that ever came to the wire was offered in the thirty trot. There were fifteen starters and the drivers and officials decided it would be best to divide the field into two divisions. The purse was increased to $160, each division racing for half that sum, $80.

Victor Elect, a bay horse owned by D. W. Hisey, of Bellefontaine, and Becker Wiggins, a bay mare owned by R. E. Bedford of Paris, Ky., were winners of their respective divisions in straight heats. Practically the same time was made by the two fields.

Harry, a black horse owned by I. N. Smeck of Columbus, won the 2:17 pace with little difficulty though Judge D. a gray gelding owned by G. A. Urban of Zanesville, was a close second in the first two heats. In the last heat of this event, Judge D. gave second place to Harry Stone, a bay gelding driven by Sam Rube of Logan.

The trotting races for three-year-olds furnished the most excitement of the afternoon's program. Sr. Alconite and Black Fashion were close contenders for first honors in the second and last heat and the horses came under the wire about even. Sr. Alconite had a nose the better of his opponent and was awarded the second heat and race.

Aura Bell, by Vanko, trotted a mile to beat 2:30 and performed the feat in 2:29 1/4.

Turkish Guards Attack Montenegro

Cettinjo, Montenegro, Oct. 2.—Detachments of Turkish frontier guards today attacked the Montenegrans on the border in Berana district. The Montenegrans did not reply to the firing and the Turks then retired. The order of a general mobilization in Montenegro has been received with the utmost enthusiasm throughout the country. King Nicholas and his minister have received a number of telegrams urging them to begin hostilities immediately against Turkey.

THOMAS HOOD'S OVERSIGHT.
Thomas Hood gave to literature the undying "Song of the Shirt" but he might have written an even sadder song that of the washtub. Easy Task laundry soap was unknown in his day. It is only for the last quarter century that it has been relieving women of backaches and bruised hands. It takes the dirt out of or off anything—actually does most of the work itself. Your grocer has it.
